1.4 In this Agreement, whenever a reference to “department” is made, it shall be understood that this refers to the college in the College of Nursing and Health and individual respective department, School or to the Lake Campus. For the College of Nursing and Health and for the Lake Campus, here and elsewhere in this Agreement, the terms “Department Chair” and “Chair” refer to the Dean and/or Chief Officer of the Lake Campus.

1.8 When a deadline set forth in this agreement falls on a Saturday or Sunday, on a formal holiday recognized by the University, or during a period when the University is officially closed, such deadline will be extended to the next business day.
Article 2
Recognition

2.1 The University recognizes the AAUP-WSU as the sole and exclusive representative for the Members of the Bargaining Unit described below for the purpose of collective bargaining. Exclusive recognition means that the University will not deal with any other organization, or any individual, in a manner or for a purpose inconsistent with this exclusive recognition.

2.2 Individual contracts of employment with Members of the Bargaining Unit shall be consistent with this Agreement, and if inconsistent, this Agreement shall supersede.

2.3 The Bargaining Unit consists of (1) all full-time tenured and tenure-track faculty employed by Wright State University, hereafter referred to as Tenure-Eligible and Tenured (TET) Faculty, and (2) all Senior Lecturers, Lecturers, Instructors, Clinical Professors, Clinical Associate Professors, Clinical Assistant Professors, Clinical Instructors, and Visiting faculty employed full-time by Wright State University, hereafter referred to as Non-Tenure Eligible (NTE) Faculty. Excluded from the Unit are all department chairs and heads, all ranks of deans, all ranks of provosts, all ranks of vice-presidents, the President, all other supervisors defined by Ohio Revised Code 4117.01(F), all faculty within the Schools of Medicine and Professional Psychology other than those who are tenured or tenure-track, and all other employees not included above. (Combined Unit certified by the Ohio State Employment Relations Board on June 2, 2016).

2.4 The term “Bargaining Unit Faculty” and “Members of the Bargaining Unit” and “Members” wherever used in this Agreement without further qualification are defined to include all TET and NTE faculty members who are included in the Bargaining Unit pursuant to Section 2.3. As necessary, the TET Bargaining Unit Faculty and the NTE Bargaining Unit Faculty are herein distinguished from one another, by referring to them as either "NTE Bargaining Unit Faculty Members" or "TET Bargaining Unit Faculty Members."

2.5 If, during the term of this Agreement, questions arise regarding the bargaining unit status of one or more University employees, the parties will meet promptly to discuss the status of individuals and shall attempt to reach agreement as to their inclusion or exclusion from the Bargaining Unit. If the parties are unable to reach agreement as to the status of any individual within ten (10) days from the commencement of the discussions, either party may petition the SERB for a determination of the status of the position.

2.6 The parties agree to cooperate with each other in the enforcement of this Agreement.
Article 3
Non-Discrimination

3.1 The University agrees and the AAUP-WSU agree that neither party shall not discriminate against an employee because of membership in or activity on behalf of the AAUP-WSU. Specifically, the parties agree that there shall be no discrimination in any form, including interference, restraint, intimidation or coercion, related to the free exercise of the following rights of a University employee:

1. To be a member of a union or employee organization;
2. To not be a member of a union or employee organization;
3. To provide support to a union or employee organization;
4. To not provide support to a union or employee organization.

3.2 Neither the University nor the AAUP-WSU shall discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, ability or disability, veteran’s status, military status, national origin, ancestry, sex, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, genetic information or age as protected classes and characteristics determined in accordance with applicable legal authorities.

3.3 The University and the AAUP-WSU will not tolerate any form of illegal harassment based on sex, race, or any other category listed in Section 3.2.

3.4 Any Bargaining Unit Member charged with discrimination or harassment is entitled to due process before the University imposes any form of discipline as permitted under Article 14. However, the Member may be suspended with pay pursuant to Section 14.3. When notifying a Bargaining Unit Faculty Member that a complaint has been filed against him or her, the Office of Equity and Inclusion will provide the Member with a written statement from the AAUP-WSU regarding the Member’s rights. If the complaint is not resolved through mediation, the Office of Equity and Inclusion will notify the AAUP-WSU President of the charges and the name of the Bargaining Unit Faculty Member being charged, five (5) days prior to a hearing.

3.5 Any Member of the Bargaining Unit who believes he or she has been discriminated against or harassed must seek relief through the Wright State University Office of Affirmative Action Programs, through University’s then-current administrative process for investigating and resolving such complaints or by pursuing a grievance under the terms of this contract, or through legal action pursuant to any applicable state or federal law. When a Bargaining Unit Faculty Member seeks relief through the Office of Equity and Inclusion, that office will provide the Member with a written statement from the AAUP-WSU regarding the Member’s rights.

3.6 Relationship by family, marriage or domestic partner relationship is considered neither an advantage nor a deterrent to a Bargaining Unit Faculty Member. No Member will be assigned to a department under the direct supervision of a relative or other person with whom the Member has such a relationship.

3.7 Consensual sexual or romantic relations between faculty and students and Bargaining Unit Faculty with whom they also have an evaluative relationship constitute a conflict of interest.
prohibited unless (a.) the relationship is promptly disclosed in writing to the Provost, (b.) the parties comply with any reasonable measure instituted by the Provost (or delegate) to prevent the relationship from disrupting the University’s official activities and/or either party’s academic or employment opportunities or responsibilities, and (c.) the Member has no direct or indirect role or influence on the student’s academic activities. Members shall avoid such relationships or, if such a relationship does exist, will promptly make arrangement through their Department Chair to eliminate any conflict of interest or appearance of such conflict, to the extent possible.

3.7 Members shall avoid taking or influencing official University actions (e.g. giving grades, providing official advising/career counseling, etc.) that pertain to any member of their immediate family (including but not limited to parent, child, spouse, grandparent, grandchild, uncle/aunt/cousin, parent/child-in-law, step-parent/child), or any person with whom the Member has a business, financial, or sexual/romantic relationship. Bargaining Unit Faculty shall not grade or otherwise evaluate students with whom they have a familial or other relationship as described in Section 3.6. If such a student’s application or enrollment calls for any evaluation on the part of a Member, that Member shall promptly make arrangements through his or her Department Chair to eliminate any conflict of interest or appearance of such conflict, to the extent possible.

Article 5
Academic Freedom and Professional Responsibilities

5.1 Academic Freedom:

5.1.1 Academic freedom is essential for the proper development of the University. It functions to protect the institution from unwarranted interference by external groups and to ensure the retention of the services of those whose contributions toward its goals make them an essential part of the faculty. In so doing, it secures the autonomy and integrity of the University and makes its development as an intellectual community an object of primary concern.

5.1.2 Academic freedom is the unqualified right of every Member of the Bargaining Unit. It carries a reciprocal obligation to respect and maintain the academic freedom of every other member of the University community.

5.1.3 Academic freedom is the freedom to teach, both in and outside the classroom; to conduct research and to publish, display or perform the results of those investigations; and to address any matter of institutional policy or action whether or not as a member of an agency of institutional governance. Members of the Bargaining Unit should also have the freedom to address the larger community with regard to any matter of social, political, economic, or other interest, without institutional discipline, save in response to fundamental violations of professional ethics, statements that suggest disciplinary incompetence, or violations of the professional responsibilities set forth in Sections 5.2.1 through 5.2.5.

5.1.4 Bargaining Unit Faculty Members are entitled to freedom to teach, profess and discuss material in the classroom subject to limits detailed below.

5.2 Professional Responsibilities:

5.2.1 Members of the Bargaining Unit, guided by a deep conviction of the worth and dignity of the advancement of knowledge, shall recognize that academic responsibility implies faithful performance of professional duties and obligations. Their primary responsibility to their subject is to seek and state the truth as they see it. To this end Members shall devote their energies to developing and improving their scholarly competence. They have an obligation to exercise critical self-discipline and judgment in using, extending, and transmitting knowledge. They shall practice intellectual honesty. Although Members may follow subsidiary interests, these interests must never seriously hamper or compromise their freedom of inquiry.

5.2.2 As teachers, Bargaining Unit Faculty Members shall encourage the free pursuit of learning in their students. They shall hold before them the best scholarly and ethical standards of their discipline. Bargaining Unit Faculty Members shall demonstrate respect for students as individuals and adhere to their proper roles as intellectual guides and counselors. Members of the Bargaining Unit shall make every reasonable effort to foster honest academic conduct and ensure that their evaluations of students reflect each student’s true merit. They shall avoid any exploitation, harassment, or discriminatory treatment of students. They shall acknowledge significant academic or scholarly assistance from students.
5.2.3 As colleagues, Bargaining Unit Faculty Members have obligations that derive from common membership in the community of scholars. Members of the Bargaining Unit shall not discriminate against or harass colleagues. They shall respect and defend their associates’ free inquiry. In the exchange of criticism and ideas, Members shall show due respect for others, even when disagreeing with or criticizing others’ opinions. Bargaining Unit Faculty Members shall acknowledge academic debts and strive to be objective in their professional judgment of colleagues.

5.2.4 In making public statements—including the exercise of the right to responsible dissent on matters of institutional policy or educational philosophy—Members of the Bargaining Unit have an obligation to be accurate, to act in a professional and civil manner, to show due respect for others (even when disagreeing with or criticizing others’ opinions), and to make every effort to indicate that they are not speaking for the University speaking as a private individual and not as a representative of the University. Actions to make this clear may include giving a disclaimer that the Member’s views and opinions are their own, and are not necessarily endorsed by the University and/or ensuring that University logos and marks are not included in any visual representations.

5.2.5 Bargaining Unit Faculty Members shall accept their share of faculty responsibilities in the academic governance of the University.
Article 7
Faculty Rights and Responsibilities

7.1 [7.2] Grades. The University and the AAUP-WSU agree that the individual Member retains the authority to make the final determination of the grade to be awarded to each student in his or her class. Members shall award grades impartially, without bias, and based on criteria outlined in the course syllabus.

7.1.1. [7.2.1] If the Bargaining Unit Faculty Member cannot be contacted, there is a conflict of interest, or extraordinary circumstances serve to make the grade inappropriate, the Chair, Dean, or a provost may change a grade awarded by a Member only “for cause.” Cause may exist where the grade is objectively wrong (such as administrative error), where a change is required by applicable legal authorities, where the Member has/had a conflict of interest that prevented or reasonably appeared to prevent them from awarding an impartial grade, or where there is substantial evidence that the grade was arbitrary or affected by bias (such as the student’s membership in any protected class). A grade may also be changed in accordance with specific academic policies set by the Faculty Senate or in response to a petition submitted by the student, providing that such changes are not in conflict with provisions of this Agreement. Before a grade is changed in response to a petition submitted by the student, the Member will be given an opportunity to make a recommendation regarding the anticipated or requested change. When a grade is changed, the Member and the AAUP-WSU will receive prompt written notice.

7.2.1.1 Changing a grade to A, B, C, D, F, P, U, or X requires consent of the Bargaining Unit Faculty Member who awarded the grade or, under extraordinary circumstances, consent of other NTE or TET Bargaining Unit Faculty in the Department. The Bargaining Unit Faculty Member whose grade was changed under such extraordinary circumstances and the AAUP-WSU will receive written notification of the change within two weeks after the decision to change the grade.

7.2 [7.6] Learning Environment. In order to maintain a safe and otherwise appropriate learning environment, AAUP-WSU and the University agree to the following measures.

7.2.1 [7.6.1] Each Member is responsible for maintaining decorum and a suitable learning environment within their classroom. When, in the judgment of a Bargaining Unit Faculty Member, a student in that Member’s class is disruptive, the Member may remove the student from each class meeting in which the disruptive behavior occurs. The Member is also entitled to reasonable assistance of the University Police Department in resolving the situation. If the Member has reasonable cause to believe the student’s continued presence in the course would be disruptive and wishes to have the student permanently removed from class, the Member shall initiate the removal process by making a written request through the Office of the Provost. After notifying the Office of the Provost, the Member may also notify the AAUP-WSU that the request has been filed. The Member must contact either the AAUP-WSU or the Office of the Provost and may contact a representative of the AAUP-WSU to initiate the procedure described in Section 7.6.2.

7.2.2 [7.6.2] The Member who teaches the class, a representative of the AAUP-WSU, and a provost will confer as soon as possible (normally within twenty-four hours) regarding the student’s past conduct, and the Member’s basis for believing that future inappropriate behavior will occur, and whether the student should be removed from the class pending the completion of the student disciplinary process. The final outcome of this meeting will be at the sole discretion of the Provost or appropriate designee, whether the student should be allowed to attend the Member’s class pending the completion of the student disciplinary process. Unless both the provost and the AAUP-WSU representative conclude that the student should be permitted to attend class, the student shall not be permitted to return until the disciplinary process is completed.

7.6.3 The provost will be responsible for informing the student as to whether or not he or she may return to class and that a hearing on the matter will be held by the Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct as soon as possible.

7.3 [7.9] Off-Campus Teaching. Members who are assigned to teach courses at off-campus locations as part of their regular teaching responsibilities (except when the assignment is made at the Member’s own request and/or for the Member’s convenience) shall be reimbursed for mileage, parking fees and tolls in accordance with University policy on travel. When such assignments necessitate travel beyond a twenty-five mile radius of campus, excluding the distance from the Member’s home to the University, the Member will receive inconvenience compensation in an amount as determined by the University. The minimum inconvenience compensation for travel 26 to 50 miles from the Member’s campus office shall be $30 per trip. The minimum inconvenience compensation for travel more than 50 miles, shall be $60 per trip. If inclement weather or other hazardous conditions prevail, then the Bargaining Unit Faculty Member shall also be reimbursed for hotel and meal expenses in accordance with the University policy on travel.

7.10 Internet Access. The University will provide all Members with internet access at no cost to the individual Member. The University will maintain internet connections in a manner consistent with other Ohio universities.

7.11 E-mail. The University recognizes the technological advantage of the e-mail system for communication in a university setting and will provide the basic software for e-mail communication to all Bargaining Unit Faculty Members at no cost to the Member.

7.4 [7.12] Internet Security and Privacy.

7.4.1 [7.12.1] The University and the AAUP-WSU recognize the University’s right and obligation to provide the WSU community with high quality computer and network resources, to protect the security and integrity of the computer facilities owned and operated by the University. To that end, the University may engage in automated monitoring of electronic files and electronic communications transmitted via or stored on University resources in order to promote network security, prevent improper or unauthorized dissemination of sensitive information, to detect and respond to intrusion events and unauthorized use, and for legal/regulatory/compliance-related purposes. Automated monitoring is monitoring principally conducted without human interaction, though events flagged by automated processes may be investigated and resolved by and through human interaction, and at the same time to treat faculty electronic mail (“email”) and faculty computer files as private to the fullest extent permitted by law. The University and the AAUP-WSU agree that the rights and responsibilities of academic freedom apply to the use of the University’s computer and network resources.
7.4.2 [7.12.2] Except as listed below, under extraordinary circumstances described below, access by University personnel to faculty email typically requires the permission of either the sender or the recipient of the message. However, the University reserves the right to search, retrieve, and use any information transmitted via or stored on University resources (a.) when reasonably necessary in order to conduct the University’s official business, (b.) where a sender or recipient of the information has given consent (or where the University or a University organization is itself a sender or recipient), and/or (c.) in the following circumstances: Similarly, access by University personnel to the content of a computer file in a faculty computer account or otherwise located on University computer hardware assigned to a faculty member ordinarily requires the permission of the faculty member to whom the account or hardware has been assigned. The only extraordinary circumstances in which University personnel may read faculty email or faculty computer files without the permission of an individual faculty member are as follows:

- when ordered to do so by a court;
- when ordered to do so pursuant to a subpoena or other legally enforceable order;
- when the email or computer file is a “public record” as defined in ORC 149.43 and a proper request is made;
- when required to comply with the law;
- when in the normal operation and maintenance of the University’s computer facilities, University staff inadvertently or inevitably open or otherwise briefly access an electronic mail message or computer file;
- when emergency entry is necessary to preserve the integrity of the University’s computer and network facilities or to preserve public health and safety;
- when the University has reasonable cause to believe that a “litigation hold” is necessary based upon knowledge by University Legal Counsel of the presentment of a claim or of a potential cause of action impacting the University. In such an instance, University Legal Counsel will so advise the affected faculty member. Following receipt of such notice, it is the faculty member’s legal responsibility to maintain copies of all email, computer files and other relevant electronically stored information until such time as the litigation hold is released, the litigation is completed or the retention time requirements under the university’s records retention policy are met, whichever comes last;
- when the University has reasonable cause to believe that a faculty member may be violating the law, University Policy or any provision of this Agreement;
- when the University has reasonable cause to believe that the faculty member has committed academic misconduct; or
- when the University has reasonable cause to believe that immediate access is necessary to investigate a threat or to prevent physical harm to any person.

The University will not intentionally search and/or retrieve the electronic files or emails of a particular Member or specific group of Members for discipline-related purposes without promptly notifying AAUP-WSU unless the University believes the notification might jeopardize preservation of records necessary to conduct an investigation, or notification is prohibited.

7.4.3 [7.12.3] A Member who commits an unlawful criminal act through the use of the Internet access provided by the University shall be liable for all damages and costs incurred by the University.
7.12.4 Whenever the University reads or otherwise accesses the e-mail or computer files of a Bargaining Unit Faculty Member without the Member’s permission, the University will promptly notify AAUP-WSU unless the University has a reasonable belief that such notification might jeopardize the preservation of records that are needed to conduct an investigation pursuant to Section 7.12.2 or otherwise inhibit an investigation conducted pursuant to Section 7.12.2.

7.5 [7.13] Library Privacy. Where possible, the University Libraries shall make a good faith effort to adhere to the American Library Association Code of Ethics regarding use of information about Members as library patrons.

7.6 [7.14] Legal Protection.

7.6.1 [7.14.1] Members have the right to University-provided legal representation if to any Member of the Bargaining Unit who is named a defendant in a civil action based on their good faith performance of the Member’s official University duties within the course scope of employment; and Legal representation will be at the Member’s request, subject to the approval of the Ohio Attorney General and in accordance with Ohio law. Pursuant to Ohio Revised Code Section 9.87 the University shall seek indemnification from the state for liability or judgment of any Member of the Bargaining Unit resulting from the performance of their duties for the University. Nothing in this Section is intended to expand or conflict with current Ohio law.

7.6.2 [7.14.2] As long as the University continues to provide liability insurance coverage pursuant to ORC 3345.202 for any member of the University Board of Trustees or any University officer, the University shall continue to provide that level of liability insurance coverage for each Member.

7.15 Notice of Teaching Assignments. The parties agree that adequate notice of teaching assignments (here and below, meaning which courses they will teach, but not necessarily the scheduling of those courses at specific times) supports high quality instruction. Therefore, the University will make a good faith effort to inform Members of their teaching assignments at least two months before the beginning of any semester. Except under extraordinary circumstances, the University will inform Members of their teaching assignments at least four weeks before the beginning of any fall or spring semester (two weeks before the beginning of a summer term). Extraordinary circumstances include, but are not limited to, the death or illness or resignation of a faculty member which necessitates changes to teaching assignments in a department. When changes to teaching assignments are made in response to extraordinary circumstances after the aforementioned deadlines, the University will, in writing, promptly inform Members of any change(s) to their teaching assignments and the reason for the change(s).

7.15.1 The University will make a good faith effort to inform Members of the specific times when their assigned classes are scheduled at least four weeks before the beginning of any fall or spring semester (two weeks before the beginning of a summer term).

Note – the portion of Article 7 that reflects “Faculty Rights” above was tentatively agreed to by the parties on May 22, 2023 and the portion below that reflects “Faculty Responsibilities was tentatively agreed to on June 14, 2023. The parties intend to reincorporate (and subsequently renumber) them into a final “Article 7 – Faculty Rights and Responsibilities” article in the final document.
7.1 Textbooks.

7.1.1 [7.1] With the exception shown in Section 7.1.1, the University and the AAUP-WSU agree that NTE and TET Bargaining Unit Faculty Members shall select textbooks and other teaching material (e.g., software, course notes, etc.) for the courses they teach by the appropriate deadlines. And that the decision whether to do so individually or collectively will be made by them and by administrators who are members of their department and teach the course(s) in question.

7.1.1 Textbooks and other teaching material (e.g. software, course notes, etc.) for School of Medicine courses shall be selected by an all-faculty committee within that particular discipline. If any portion of Section 7.1.1 can be shown by an external accreditation report not to comply with accreditation standards for the School of Medicine, the textbooks shall be chosen by a Course Oversight Committee and the School of Medicine Faculty Curriculum Committee.

7.1.2 When selecting textbooks and other teaching materials, Members shall make good faith efforts to keep costs to students as low as possible without sacrificing academic needs and to select teaching materials that are consistent with the curriculum. Members may not require students, as a condition of enrolling or successfully completing any course taught by the Member, to purchase textbooks or other teaching materials in which the Member (or a member of their immediate family) has any financial interest unless the department or school curriculum committee determines that there is a legitimate pedagogical reason for their use, and that the charge is reasonable.

7.2 Grades

7.2.1 [7.2.2] A Member shall explain a grade to a student who requests such explanation during the regular office hours or by appointment. This availability to explain course grades extends to one week after grades are due. In absence of extenuating circumstances, responses to inquiries or concerns about grades must be sent to the student within two business days of their inquiry.

7.2.2 [7.2.3] Bargaining Unit Faculty Members will schedule examinations, papers, or other components of the grade for each undergraduate course in a manner that will give students feedback and allow them to make informed judgments about their progress during the first half of the course (no later than the end of the seventh week of each Fall or Spring semester, the third week of each six-week summer term, and the mid-point of differently scheduled classes). In those graduate and advanced undergraduate courses wherein it is not feasible to comply with this requirement, Bargaining Unit Faculty Members will include a statement to that effect in the course syllabus.

7.2.3 [7.2.4] Bargaining Unit Faculty Members shall turn in all final course grades as soon as possible and no later than 12:00 noon of the third working day after the University’s course’s last scheduled examination period. Midterm grades, for the classes that require them, will be turned in no later than the deadline published by the Provost’s Office. These deadlines shall only be extended in the event that the Member is unable to turn in the grades due to illness or unforeseen emergency.
7.2.4 Tentative Language Signed May 22 and June 14, 2023

For at least one year after they have issued grades for a course, Members shall retain (in electronic or written form) any of the following items that were used in determining those grades: grade records, progress reports, and attendance records.

7.3 Course Syllabi.

7.3.1 Members shall provide a course outline for students in each course taught. The outline shall include a clear explanation of the course requirements, learning objectives and outcomes, a class calendar, and policies on grading and expectations for class attendance. It is only necessary to state an attendance policy in a syllabus if attendance is factored into the calculation of the student’s grade. During the semester that a course is being taught, Members shall provide timely notice and explanation to students for routine changes to course syllabi. When substantive changes to the course syllabus are made, Members shall also provide timely notice and explanation to the Member’s Chair.

7.3.2 Members will make a good faith effort to make their syllabi available to students on the University learning management system and to the Department Chair one week prior to the beginning of the course, unless (a.) the member has submitted a written request to the Chair or designee, and it has been approved in advance, demonstrating that there is a clear and substantive pedagogical reason to delay or (b.) the Member was assigned to teach the course less than four weeks before the first class meeting. In any event, the Member will make syllabi available as soon as possible, and no later than the end of the first week of class. The syllabi should remain available to students on the University learning management system until the end of the last day of the finals week.

7.3.3 Members shall make good faith efforts to make the content of the course, as reflected in the syllabus and as actually taught, consistent with the curriculum.

7.4 Faculty Availability.

7.4.1 Members with academic year appointments shall be reasonably available in person for service at the University, including but not limited to, the five work days before the start of the Fall semester, the three work days before the start of Spring Semester, and throughout the academic year. They shall also be available by email beginning two weeks before the start of the Fall semester and continuing one week after grades are due, the conclusion of Spring Semester Final Exam week.

7.4.2 Bargaining Unit Faculty Members have an obligation to meet all of their scheduled classes throughout the scheduled time, unless an alternative learning experience has been assigned. If a Member desires to assign an alternative learning experience in lieu of a class meeting involves a substantial portion of a course (a full week of class, for example, or an equivalent amount of time for late starts or early dismissals), the Member must either list the alternative learning experience in the syllabus as part of the course requirement or obtain advance approval, in which case the alternative learning experience must be approved by the department curriculum committee or approved for the specific section of the course by the Department Chair.

7.4.3 Bargaining Unit Faculty Members who will be absent from class because of attendance at a professional meeting shall factor this into the course syllabi with an alternative learning experience or if scheduled after the term has started, request written permission from the Chair and notify students in a timely manner at least two weeks in advance absent significant extenuating circumstances.

7.4.4 Bargaining Unit Faculty Members who will be absent from class because of religious observance shall inform their students and the Department Chair at the beginning of the semester and shall include in the syllabus an alternative learning experience for that class period.

7.4.5 When forced by illness or unforeseen emergency to cancel class, Bargaining Unit Faculty Members shall inform the Department Chair of such cancellation. If possible, the Member will inform the Department Chair and the students of the cancellation a reasonable period of time before the class is scheduled to meet.

7.4.6 [NEW] In order to foster student success and support the University’s retention efforts, Members shall be responsive to student inquiries by replying appropriately to student emails as soon as possible but no later than within 2 business days of receipt.

7.4.7 [NEW] Members shall submit the required 14-Day Participation Rosters in accordance with the timelines published by the Office of the Provost and Registrar’s Office.

7.4.8 [7.15.2] Members who are unable for medical reasons to accept a teaching assignment will promptly notify the University, with appropriate documentation, as far in advance as possible.

7.5 Office Hours.

7.5.1 Each Bargaining Unit Faculty Member shall maintain a minimum of four (4) regular office hours (with a maximum of 30 minutes per credit hour) per week, spread out over at least two days. These hours should occur at times that a sufficient number of regular office hours to meet the reasonable needs of the Member’s students and advisees and must be approved by the Chair. Members shall also meet with students, either in-person or virtually, and be available by appointment outside their regularly scheduled office hours at times that are mutually convenient for the students and faculty member to discuss grades or coursework.

7.5.2 Regular office hours shall occur in the Member’s university provided office and at reasonably convenient times for students and advisees; they shall be scheduled on at least two days per week, they shall be posted, distributed and included in all course syllabi, and posted on each Member’s office door, and they shall occur in the Bargaining Unit Faculty Member’s faculty office or other facility equally convenient for students.

7.5.3 E-mail, online chat rooms, video chatting, audio chatting, and other types of electronic communication including, but not limited to, virtual meetings may supplement in-person availability during regular office hours but should not be used to replace opportunities for face-to-face meetings. However, a member with a fully online teaching assignment in a given term may request to schedule virtual office hours only, provided the Member is reasonably available in person, upon request, to students and advisees. Approval of such a request is at the sole discretion of the Dean.

Chairs and Deans can call in-person and/or virtual meetings and require that include Bargaining Unit Faculty Members to be present in whichever modality the meeting is being held (in-person or virtually) during business hours for the five three-work days before Fall Semester classes begin, the three work days before Spring Semester classes begin, and the fifteen weeks of Fall and Spring Semesters, and for the three days after the last day of exam week in Fall and Spring Semester. In addition, Chairs and Deans can call virtual meetings that include Members during business hours for the ten days before Fall Semester classes begin, and until five days after the last day of Finals Week in Spring Semester.

7.7.2 Chairs and Deans can also call meetings that include Bargaining Unit Faculty Members at any other times during the calendar year--

4. if the meeting is voluntary, with no evaluative or disciplinary consequences based on a Member’s presence or absence.

7.7.3 Chairs and deans can ask to meet with a faculty committee on a specified topic, ask that a committee address a particular issue, or ask a committee to provide recommendations by a specific date. Committee chairs will make a good faith effort to comply with such requests in a timely manner. If that committee does not provide a response to the administrator’s request, the administrator can either (1) call a meeting of that committee or (2) choose to move forward without the faculty-committee’s recommendation.

7.7.4 When department and college and university promotion and tenure committees are called upon to make recommendations during the summer, Members who served during the preceding academic year will constitute the Committee membership. Members will make a good faith effort to attend such summer meetings and the University will make a good faith effort to schedule meetings that are reasonably convenient for as many of the Committee members as possible.

7.7.5 Chairs and Deans can call meetings that include Members under circumstances other than those specified in Sections 7.7.1 through 7.7.4, but attendance at such meetings is voluntary and no evaluative or disciplinary consequences can occur because of a Member’s presence or absence.

Academic Calendar

9.1 The academic year is divided into two semesters of fifteen weeks (fourteen weeks of instruction and one week of final examinations) plus a summer semester. The summer semester will consist of one twelve-week term (C Term) that is further divided into two terms of six weeks each (Terms A and B). The fall semester will end mid-December. When developing the calendar for a specific academic year the parties will make a good faith effort to include 70 instructional days in each semester. Standard course scheduling during these semesters will provide for 55-minute Monday-Wednesday-Friday classes and 80 minute Tuesday-Thursday classes.

9.1.1 The summer semester will begin on a Monday, one week after the end of spring semester final exams and includes final examination days on the last Thursday of A, B and C terms. Each six-week summer session has 23 instructional days with standard course scheduling of 100 minutes per class, plus one final exam period of 100 minutes, for a three semester hour class meeting four days a week during the summer. Use of the A term final examination day by C term classes is a matter of instructor discretion.

9.1.2 When a scheduled final exam is missed due to a campus closing or delayed opening, that 100 minute exam period will be automatically rescheduled for the same time period on the Monday immediately following exam week. When the University is closed for all or part of a second day of exam week, those missed exams will be automatically rescheduled for the same time period on the Tuesday following exam week. In like fashion, third, fourth and fifth days of missed exams will be rescheduled for Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday following exam week.

During the term of this Agreement, Bargaining Unit Faculty Members participation in the governance of the University shall be no less than that provided for in this Article.

10.2 Faculty Senate. The University and the AAUP-WSU recognize that Bargaining Unit Faculty Members and non-bargaining unit faculty participation in University-wide governance will be exercised through an independent Faculty Senate and committees and councils created by the Senate. It is understood that the Senate is a representative assembly of the fully affiliated members of the faculty and its voting members are elected by them, and it shall exercise its authority in the governance of the University so as not to conflict with this Agreement.

10.3 Departmental and College Governance.

10.3.1 The University and the AAUP-WSU recognize the necessity of Bargaining Unit Faculty Members participating in departmental and college matters and acknowledge the important collegial relationships that exist between Bargaining Unit Faculty Members, the Department Chair, and the Dean.

10.3.2 When a Department Chair takes action (or elects not to act) following a recommendation from the majority of the combined TET and NTE Bargaining Unit Faculty in her or his department, the Chair shall inform them of such action and communicate the reasons for the decision either in writing or in a meeting with the TET and NTE Bargaining Unit Faculty. When a or Dean takes action (or elects not to act) following a recommendation from the majority of the TET and NTE Bargaining Unit Faculty Members in her department or his College, respectively, the Chair or Dean shall inform them of such action and communicate the reasons for the decision either in writing or in a meeting with the Bargaining Unit Faculty Members. The parties recognize that deans and chairs will not communicate reasons for their actions (or decisions not to act) that are based on confidential information.

10.4.1 Each college and each academic department, excluding the School of Medicine and the School of Professional Psychology, shall establish bylaws specifying procedures for the participation by appropriate TET and NTE Bargaining Unit Faculty Members in the governance of that college or academic department.
10.4.2 Except for the limitations on topics set forth in Section 10.4.2.1, the majority of TET and NTE Bargaining Unit Faculty Members in a department must approve departmental bylaws and amendments, and a majority of TET and NTE Bargaining Unit Faculty voting in an or college must approve college bylaws and amendments. A majority of TET and NTE Bargaining Unit Faculty many bylaw adoptions, amendments, repeals or confirmation subject to the College of Nursing and Health and at the Lake Campus must approve the bylaws for their units. All college and department bylaws and amendments must also be approved by concurrent approval of the College Dean, the Provost and by the Faculty Governance Committee (Section 10.4.8). Those bylaws and amendments for the matrix departments and for the College of Science and Mathematics that pertain to or have an impact on the Boonshoft School of Medicine must also be approved by the Dean of the School of Medicine. In this Section and elsewhere, “TET and NTE Bargaining Unit Faculty” refers to a single group made up of all Members in both bargaining units.

10.4.2.1 Only tenure eligible and tenured (TET) Members may vote on bylaws provisions that pertain to annual evaluation, promotion, tenure, professional development leave, or other evaluations of TET Members, and only TET Members may serve on Committees that address these issues. Only members of the Graduate Faculty may vote on bylaws provisions that pertain to graduate education and curriculum, and only members of the Graduate Faculty may serve on Committees that address issues pertaining directly to graduate education and curriculum.

10.4.2.2 All bylaws must be reviewed and either revised or confirmed, as appropriate, at least once every five years. Any bylaws that have not been adopted, amended or confirmed since January 1, 2022 shall be reviewed and either revised or confirmed no later than June 30, 2024 to initiate this five-year review cycle. Any bylaws reviewed and revised or confirmed in 2022 will be up for review and revision or confirmation again in 2027, and so on. Any deviation from the timeline above must be requested by the impacted department/college Members for approval by the Provost.

10.4.2.3 Neither party shall delay or impede the process as stipulated herein. Should a department or college committee fail to move forward with reasonable timeliness (i.e. within 90 days) on adoptions, amendments, repeals or confirmations of bylaws, the authority to amend the bylaws will rest with the Provost.

10.4.3 Departments or colleges that have difficulty with interpreting their bylaws may seek assistance from the Faculty Governance Committee.

10.4.4 All department and college bylaws and amendments shall be consistent with this Agreement.

10.4.4.1 The bylaws for each department will state procedures by which the TET and NTE Bargaining Unit Faculty Members give advice and make recommendations regarding –

- faculty appointment, reappointment to a different department, dismissal, promotion, and tenure;
- professional development and mentoring of new faculty;
● teaching assignments and class schedules, including summer and overloads;
● graduate and undergraduate curriculum and academic standards;
● faculty involvement in review of chairs; and
● issues affecting the department or college.

10.4.4.1 Peer Evaluation of Teaching for TET Faculty
Department bylaws will specify that peer evaluation of teaching shall be conducted annually for all untenured TET Bargaining Unit Faculty Members and may specify times and circumstances when peer evaluation of teaching is to be conducted for tenured Bargaining Unit Faculty Members. Peer evaluation need not include class visitation unless it is specifically required in bylaws.

10.4.4.2 Department bylaws will also state criteria and procedures for promotion and for tenure of TET Bargaining Unit Faculty Members as well as scholarship criteria for annual evaluation of TET Members.

10.4.4.3 The bylaws for each college will state procedures by which Bargaining Unit Faculty Members give advice and make recommendations regarding --

  ● professional development leaves;
  ● graduate and undergraduate curriculum and academic standards;
  ● faculty involvement in review of deans; and
  ● issues affecting the college.

10.4.4.4 Bylaws for the College of Nursing and Health and for the Lake Campus will state procedures and criteria required for both department and college bylaws in Sections 10.4.4.1 through 10.4.4.3.

10.4.4.5 Departmental and college bylaws will provide for calling meetings and setting agendas, voting at meetings, naming committees, and such other procedures as may be needed for faculty participation in governance. It is understood that chairs and deans may form other faculty committees, as long as they do not conflict with or usurp the functions of committees named in the bylaws.

10.4.5 Questions about whether a search process is consistent with bylaws requirements for Bargaining Unit Faculty Member participation in faculty searches may be brought to either the AAUP-WSU or the Office of the Provost. A representative of the AAUP-WSU and a provost will confer as soon as possible and will provide a joint response; that response is not subject to grievance.

10.4.5 Recognizing that the University has sole authority to appoint, evaluate, retain and remove chairs and deans, department and college bylaws will state procedures by which Bargaining Unit Faculty Members give advice/input regarding the naming of chairs and deans.
10.4.6 Except as expressly limited by the terms of this Agreement or by approved bylaws, nothing in this Article or in the bylaws of any department or college shall limit management rights, as enumerated in Ohio Revised Code 4117.08 and in Article 6 of this Agreement.

10.4.7 Only TET Bargaining Unit Faculty Members may participate in making faculty recommendations pertaining to reappointment to a different department, dismissal, tenure, promotion, professional development leave, and other evaluations of TET Bargaining Unit Faculty Members as provided for in Sections 10.4.4.1 through 10.4.4.4. However, non-Bargaining Unit faculty in the School of Medicine shall be permitted to participate in making recommendations pertaining to reappointment, dismissal, tenure, promotion, and evaluation of Bargaining Unit Faculty Members in matrix departments in a manner not inconsistent with department and college bylaws.

10.4.7.1 Except as may be provided elsewhere in this agreement, only TET Bargaining Unit Faculty Members may participate in selecting or electing the TET Bargaining Unit Faculty Members who will serve on Promotion and Tenure Committees.

10.4.8 To facilitate development and any subsequent revision of department and college bylaws, the parties will maintain a joint Faculty Governance Committee composed of three (3) persons selected by AAUP-WSU and representing the AAUP-WSU Members and three (3) persons selected by and representing the University.

10.4.8.1 The University and the AAUP-WSU shall each designate one of the Committee members as a co-chair.

10.4.8.2 The presence of both co-chairs and at least one other member from the AAUP-WSU and one other member from the University shall constitute a quorum for all meetings. A quorum is necessary to approve any bylaws or any subsequent revisions to bylaws.

10.4.8.3 Any approval of new or amended college or department bylaws requires four (4) affirmative votes. In the event of a tie the Provost will meet with the full committee to receive input and make a determination as to the final college or department bylaws to be adopted.

10.5 Bargaining Unit Faculty Member Participation in the Review of Chairs and Deans.

10.5.1 Informal Reviews of Chairs and Deans. Annually, Deans will solicit feedback from Bargaining Unit Faculty about the performance of their department chair, and the Provost will solicit feedback from Bargaining Unit Faculty about the performance of both their department chair and their dean to the Provost’s office on an annual basis. Chairs and deans will not be given the informal feedback pertaining to themselves until after the Bargaining Unit Faculty Members in their unit have received their annual evaluations pursuant to Section TH Article 11.2 or N11.2. Reporting of feedback will be anonymous and solicited by the Provost’s office.
10.5.2. Formal Reviews of Chairs and Deans. At least every five years, the University will conduct formal reviews of chairs and deans to whom Bargaining Unit Faculty Members report. TET and/or NTE Bargaining Unit Faculty Members will be included on all review committees for chairs and deans who have Bargaining Unit Faculty Members in their units. All Bargaining Unit Faculty Members in the administrator’s unit will be asked to respond to questions posed in the review. A final report that summarizes findings of the review will be made available to all Bargaining Unit Faculty Members in the administrator’s unit.
Article 11
Annual Evaluation

11.1 Evaluations. The purpose of the University evaluation procedure described herein is to facilitate the professional development of members. For tenure eligible and tenured faculty, evaluation serves to inform decisions regarding merit pay, reappointment, tenure (for TET Members), promotion, and dismissal. For non-tenure eligible faculty, evaluation informs decisions regarding merit pay, reappointment, promotion, and dismissal. The Annual Evaluation also serves to inform decisions regarding eligibility for opportunities that are outside the regular expectations of a faculty role.

In this Article, whenever a reference to “department” is made, it shall be understood that this refers to the departments and schools within a college and the Lake Campus. For jointly appointed Bargaining Unit Faculty, “department or school” refers to the Member’s “primary” department or school, which is the academic unit in which a Member is appointed more than 50% (see Section 11.5.1).

11.2 Evaluation Procedures

11.2.1 Except as noted in Sections 11.5.2, 11.5.3 and 31.5.2, the Department Chair shall conduct an annual evaluation of every Member’s performance for each the previous three calendar academic years in accordance with the teaching and service criteria set forth in Sections 11.6.1.2, 11.6.2.1 and 11.6.2.2 (TET and NTE), and the Department’s annual evaluation criteria for scholarship set forth in its bylaws pursuant to Section 10.4.4.2 (TET). If the Member has completed less than a three calendar years of service, the Chair’s evaluation will cover that period of time.

11.2.2 Except for those covered under Sections 11.5.2 and 11.5.3, for the areas of teaching and service, the Chair will provide a written evaluation and assign a score of 0 = “unsatisfactory,” 1 = “conditional merit,” 2 = “expected merit,” 3 = “high merit,” or 4 = “exceptional merit.” The Chair’s evaluation will be based on:

a) the criteria set forth in Sections 11.6.1.2, 11.6.2.1, and 11.6.2.2 (these criteria shall supersede the annual evaluation criteria for teaching and service found in a Member’s Departmental Bylaws);

b) the Member’s assigned workload;

c) the Member’s Faculty Activity Reports; and

d) other written materials available to the department chair and provided to the Member pursuant to Section 11.7.3.

11.2.3 Except for those covered under Sections 11.5.2 and 11.5.3, for the area of scholarship, the Chair will provide a written evaluation and assign a score of 0, 1, 2, 3, or 4 based upon the Member’s Faculty Activity Reports and the annual evaluation criteria for scholarship specified in the Member’s Departmental Bylaws. This score shall apply to the Member’s performance in scholarship over the immediately preceding calendar year.

11.2.3.1 The chair will then average the annual evaluation scores in scholarship given over the previous three years, and multiply this average by 0.75 (thus giving a three-year scholarship score in the 0-3 range). Any three-year scholarship score less than one will be rounded upward to 1, since shortcomings in scholarship expectations result in adjustments to the workload.

11.2.4 Before the annual evaluations are provided to Members, the Dean will review all evaluations make adjustments, as necessary, to ensure that the assigned scores are consistently applied across the college.

11.3 Merit Scores. Pursuant to Sections 11.6.1.2, 11.6.2.1, and 11.6.2.2, merit scores shall be evaluated and distributed as follows:

11.3.1 A merit score of zero (0), “unsatisfactory,” is assigned when—

Teaching
- The Member’s teaching is seriously deficient (ongoing failure to meet essential teaching related behaviors).

Service
- The Member contributes little or no service or the service contributions are clearly ineffective or unproductive.

11.3.2 A merit score of one (1), “conditional merit,” is assigned when the Member’s overall performance in the previous three years is below the expectations for “high expected merit” in the given category. Indicators of “conditional merit” include—

Teaching
- A significant number of student complaints and criticism directly related to the essential teaching related behaviors, or
- Minor shortcoming(s) in 3 or more essential teaching related behaviors, or
- Significant deficiencies in at least one essential teaching related behavior

Service
- Untenured TET faculty and those NTE faculty designated as intensive teaching:
  - Quantity of service contributions represents less than the minimal requirements for routine service, or
  - Quality of service contributions is clearly below reasonable expectations
- Tenured TET faculty and those NTE faculty designated as standard teaching:
  - Quantity of service contributions represents less than the minimal requirements for significant service, or
  - Quality of service contributions is clearly below reasonable expectations

11.3.3 A merit score of two (2), “expected merit,” is assigned when the Member’s overall performance in the previous three calendar years meets reasonable expectations in the given category. Indicators of “expected merit” include—

Teaching
- Mostly positive student evaluations that indicate the Member is available, responsive, and creates a positive environment in support of student success
- Satisfies all essential teaching related behaviors
Service

Untenured TET faculty and NTE faculty designated as intensive teaching:
- Meets expectations for routine service

Tenured TET faculty and NTE faculty designated as standard teaching:
- Meets expectations for routine service and significant service

11.3.3 A merit score of three (3), “high merit,” is assigned when the Member’s overall performance in the previous year is above the expectations for “expected merit” in the given category. Indicators of “high merit” include—

Teaching
- Student evaluations indicate that the Member goes above and beyond to ensure student success – this may be indicated by exceptional efforts to ensure students access resources outside the classroom (e.g. tutoring, etc.) to achieve success
- Satisfies all essential teaching related behaviors

Service

Untenured TET faculty and NTE faculty designated as intensive teaching:
- Meets expectations for routine service and significant service

Tenured TET faculty and NTE faculty designated as standard teaching:
- Meets expectations for routine service and exceeds significant service

11.3.4 A merit score of three-four (43), “exceptional merit,” is assigned when the Member’s overall performance in the previous three years is substantially above the expectations for “high merit” in the given category. Indicators of “exceptional merit” include—

Teaching
In addition to fully meeting the criteria for “high merit,” the Member is recognized by students and faculty for their unusually strong contributions to student success.
- Demonstrated and documented leadership by the Member in effective student success initiatives.
- Effective participation in one or more trainings from the Center for Faculty Excellence and effective implementation of skills gained to improve documented student success in a course or courses.

- Faculty colleagues recognize the Member’s unusually strong contributions to teaching.
- The Member has received national recognition for their teaching.

Service
TET Faculty and NTE faculty designated as standard teaching
- The quantity of documented service contributions for which no additional course release is provided is at least twice the requirements for significant service and
- The service includes significant leadership contributions resulting in substantial positive impact on the university, college, or department.

NTE faculty designated as intensive teaching
- Exceeds Meets the requirements for significant service
  - The quantity of documented service contributions clearly exceeds the requirements for significant service, and
  - The service includes significant leadership contributions resulting in substantial positive impact on the university, college, or department.

11.4 Workload Percentages

11.4.1 For TET faculty, after merit scores are determined, the Department Chair will then assign to each area a workload-based percentage from the chart below based on their assigned workload for the prior year, appropriate range below that gives the Member the maximum possible overall average. Using the scores (0-43) for teaching and service (pursuant to Sections 11.3.1 through 11.3.4) and the scores (0-43) for scholarship (pursuant to Sections 11.2.3 and 11.2.3.1) and the percentage assigned for each area, the University will calculate an overall score rounded to the nearest 10th.

—— Teaching 20-30%
—— Scholarship 55-65%
—— Service 10-20%

11.4.2 For NTE faculty, after merit scores are determined, the Department Chair will then assign to each area a workload-based percentage from the chart below based on their assigned workload for the year appropriate range below that gives the Member the maximum possible overall average. Using the scores (0-43) for teaching and for service (pursuant to Sections 11.3.1 through 11.3.4), and the percentage assigned for each area, the University will calculate an overall score rounded to the nearest 10th.

11.4.3 Alternative Weighting Workload. Equivalent combinations of teaching and service, and, if applicable, scholarship with percentage weightings may be applied, as agreed to at the start of the year under evaluation by the Member and the Department Chair.

11.4.4 Changing Assignments Workload. If the Member’s assigned combination of teaching, service and, if applicable, scholarship workload changes during the three year evaluation period, the chair will make a good faith effort to adjust the expectations and percentages proportionately.

11.4.5 The Chair may assign a different weighting from those listed above for TET or NTE Members in either of the following situations:

a) The Chair is imposing discipline pursuant to Article 14.
b) The Chair is acting to correct a pattern of substandard performance extending for more than one year.

11.4.6 For Members who joined, were hired into, or returned to, a position within the Bargaining Unit on or after January 1 of the preceding year, the provisions of Sections 11.2.1 through 11.2.4, Sections 11.3.1 through 11.3.4, Sections 11.4.1 or 11.4.2, and Section 11.4.3 will not apply unless –

- the Member’s teaching was unsatisfactory, or
- the Member requests in writing to have integers assigned in accordance with the provisions of Sections 11.2, 11.3, and 11.4.

In all cases, the chair will provide a written evaluation of the Member’s teaching and service to the extent it is feasible to do so.

11.4.7 For a Member who was on approved sick or military leave for one or more semesters during the three previous calendar years, the Department Chair’s evaluation will not penalize the Member for having taken such leave but will be based upon the part of the previous three calendar years during which the Member was not taking such leave.

11.5 Joint Appointments

11.5.1 When evaluating Members who are jointly appointed (Section 11.1), Department Chairs of the Member’s primary department should solicit information regarding teaching and service from the Chair of the department in which a Member’s appointment is less than 50%. Information received is subject to Section 11.7.3.

11.5.2 The Provost will conduct the annual evaluation of Members who are budgeted 75% or more outside their home department and who report directly to a provost or a vice president for more than one academic semester of the most recent year being evaluated. Each evaluation will be conducted in accordance with criteria that are contained in the Member’s job description and that are described in annual goals signed by the Member and the provost or vice president to whom she or he reports.
11.5.3 The Members evaluated by the Provost pursuant to Section 11.5.2 shall be considered as a department for purposes of annual evaluation and distribution of merit raises pursuant to Section 11.9. The provost or vice president to whom each Member reports shall submit to the Provost a written evaluation of that Member based on the job description and signed goals. The Provost will assign merit scores consistent with these evaluations.

11.5.4 When evaluating a Member who is assigned 40% or more to service or administrative responsibilities outside his or her primary department, the Department Chair should solicit information from the dean, provost or vice president to whom the Member reports.

11.6 Teaching and Service Criteria for Annual Evaluation

11.6.1 Teaching Criteria

11.6.1.2 Essential teaching behaviors and practices include, but are not limited to, those applicable teaching items in Article 7 Rights and Responsibilities and the following:

- timely preparation and distribution of syllabi
- meeting class on a consistent basis, including on-time arrival and dismissal
- professional classroom behavior
- effective organization of course content and lectures to meet course and program objectives and outcomes
- effective and timely communication with students in and out of the classroom
- effective delivery of appropriate content material
- effective processes and materials for evaluating student learning
- meeting the reasonable needs of students and advisees through availability during scheduled office hours, appointments, and online
- ongoing reflective practice of teaching utilizing student feedback, personal observations and experiences, and other methods of formative assessment to self-assess and revise courses as appropriate*
- teaching material that is current with the discipline
- teaching practices that are current with standards for equity and inclusion (e.g. active recruitment of historically under-represented students for transformative learning opportunities such as labs, internships, or the integration into course curriculum, scholarship or research that focuses upon or is produced by historically under-represented individuals.)

*Members who receive a score of less than ‘expected merit’ in Teaching will be required to work with their Chair to develop a pedagogical plan to demonstrate how they are appropriately using student evaluations and other feedback to address potential barriers to student success and/or course completion.

11.6.2 Service Criteria

11.6.2.1 Routine Service: All Members are obligated to perform “routine service,” which refers to basic faculty engagement in shared governance at the departmental level as well as involvement in the recruitment, retention and success of students at the university. The routine service obligation can be met by those applicable service items in Article 7 Rights and Responsibilities and:
10.6.2.2 Significant Service: All Members are obligated to effectively perform “significant service,” which demonstrates active engagement and productive leadership from examples of activities listed below. Specifically, tenured members are expected to demonstrate their participation in at least eight-three activities in the three-one-year period under consideration. For NTE faculty, since “significant service” will be the approximate equivalent of teaching one additional class over the course of an academic year, the time devoted in a given year to “significant service” should be equivalent to the time devoted to teaching one three-to-four-hour class.

All such service should either support and further the mission, goals or strategic plans of the department, college or University, or address the needs of the community or the profession in ways that rely upon a Member’s professional expertise. Whatever the number of activities, however, “significant service” is characterized more by quality than by quantity, and it should make a significant contribution to the department, college, University, community, or profession. Active and engaged involvement in appropriate committees, participation in appropriate faculty searches, participation in important college and university governance structures, leadership in aspects of department, college, or university life, and work in professional organizations, among other things, are all examples of “significant service.” These opportunities for “significant service” may vary across the University, but the magnitude of the “significant service” obligation does not vary significantly from unit to unit.

In order to ensure that the activities performed will be considered ‘significant service,’ Members should communicate with their Chair and receive confirmation that an activity will indeed count as ‘significant’ before commencing participation in the activity.

- Regular and effective attendance at departmental and college meetings as documented in meeting minutes; (an obligation regardless of other service that Members may perform) plus
- Effective service on one reasonably active departmental committee (e.g., a committee dealing with curricular matters or program assessment), or the equivalent*
- Attendance at, and support of, at least one university or college recruitment, retention or outreach event each semester from a list of activities provided by the Dean and/or Provost — Completion of any assessment and/or accreditation activities as reasonably requested by the Chair and/or Dean, if applicable.

* Equivalent activities include serving on committees outside the department, working within programs and departments to develop and coordinate the curriculum, participating in significant program assessment, and other activities. These opportunities for equivalent “routine service” activities may vary across the University, but the magnitude of the “routine service” obligation does not vary significantly from unit to unit. However, to ensure that the activities performed will be considered ‘equivalent,’ Members should communicate with their Chair and receive confirmation that an activity will indeed count as an ‘equivalent’ before commencing participation in the activity.
● Developing, coordinating, and/or supervising service learning courses/activities, internships, projects, and partnerships
● Participation in university, college, and department activities such as language immersion days, campus open house, blood drive, student orientation, alumni relations/fundraising, and student recruitment
● Implementing a departmental or college initiative or study
● Coordinating a substantial college, campus or community event or a policy or process change within the college
● Serving as an active advisor to an official student organization or activity (clubs, honorary societies, student case competitions, etc.)
● Developing new teaching materials or course plans for multiple sections at the request of the chair, dean or program committee
● Coordinating or performing activities that support multiple sections of common or core classes within a discipline (textbook evaluation, assessment, TAG requirements, development of common syllabus or other materials, etc.)
● Advising students effectively and/or serving effectively as a thesis director or student project director
● Promoting student success through documented initiation of innovative strategies or a superior commitment to student advising
● Mentorship of at-risk or historically underrepresented students
● Regular and active participation in: student led events/programs, student-oriented events/programs, events/programs for historically under-represented groups
● Mentoring and/or evaluation of peers and graduate assistants
● Leadership service in professional organizations that focus upon historically under-represented groups or that focus on the promotion of equity and inclusion
● Engaging in professional development trainings that enhance pedagogical and student development skills, including equity and inclusion training
● Regular and active participation in professional organization activities
● Engaging and exercising documented leadership in service to the community and/or profession that uses one’s professional expertise
● Editing a substantial professional journal
● Obtaining and maintaining professional licenses and/or certifications
● Reviewing books, journals or other manuscripts
● Coordinating a special project or task force
● Participation in professional activities, either paid or unpaid, related to the faculty member’s teaching discipline
● Coordination or maintenance of labs
● Service to AAUP-WSU or the Ohio Conference of AAUP or the national AAUP
● Presentations or participating on panel discussions for internal or external organization training seminars, workshops or meetings (CTL Center for Faculty Excellence, staff development programs, external professional organization, community organization)
● Effectively serving on and/or chairing a major government or community board
● Actively promoting alumni relations or engaging in fundraising
● The documented equivalent of any of the above

The assigned duties of service for which a reduction in teaching is provided are not counted as “significant service,” as listed above. Extra initiatives and leadership in such a role, however, should be considered as engagement or leadership, as appropriate.
11.7 Faculty Activity Reports and Chair’s Evaluation

11.7.1 In preparation for the Chair’s evaluation, all Members will submit a Faculty Activity Report to their Chair by January 31, 2023. The Faculty Activity Report form will be developed by the University with input from AAUP-WSU to reflect scoring and content that aligns with this Article. This Faculty Activity Report, which should include a report of their teaching and service during the preceding academic year as well as a record of their fulfillment of the applicable faculty responsibilities listed in Article 7 that are relevant to teaching and service the following year. Additionally, the Faculty Activity Report of all TET Members will also include a list of their scholarship (including publications and grants) during the preceding five calendar years and a report of their scholarly activity during the previous calendar year.

1. a list of their publications and grants during the preceding five calendar years (TET)
2. a report of their scholarly activity during the previous calendar year not listed in (1) (TET) and
3. a report of their teaching and service during the preceding three calendar years (TET and NTE)

11.7.2 In addition to any materials required by this Agreement or by Department bylaws, Members may include whatever material will provide evidence of successful teaching, scholarship or service.

11.7.3 The Department Chair may use other written materials if they document the Chair’s direct observation or are from identifiable sources. The Member shall be given a complete copy of such materials and provided the opportunity to respond to them in writing, and the Chair shall consider the Member’s response in writing her or his annual evaluation.

11.7.4 For TET faculty, the Department Chair will use, in the annual evaluation, all peer evaluations of teaching, as appropriate pursuant to 11.8.1 (for TET) and 13.5.2.3 for (NTE), (Section 10.4.4.1.1) the Member has received (if any) pursuant to Section 11.8.1. Likewise, for NTE faculty, the Department Chair will use, in the annual evaluation, all peer evaluations of teaching the Member has received (if any) pursuant to Section N13.5.2.3 and subsections.

11.7.5 After conducting the evaluations, the Department Chair will send to each Member an electronic copy of his or her evaluation.

11.7.6 A Member who disagrees with the Chair’s evaluation may send a written response to the Chair. This rebuttal shall be stapled to the original evaluation, forwarded to all other entities which receive a copy of the evaluation, and kept in the Department or College office. For TET faculty, the stipulation as described in Section T13.3 will be followed.

11.8 Annual Review for Untenured Bargaining Unit Faculty Members

11.8.1 Included in the Chair’s annual evaluation of all untenured Members of the Bargaining Unit shall be a statement reflecting peer evaluation of the individual’s teaching effectiveness (Section 10.4.4.1.1). The Chair and the tenured Members in the Department share joint responsibility for ensuring that peer evaluation of teaching is conducted each year.
11.8.2 Included with the Chair’s annual evaluation of all untenured Members of the Bargaining Unit shall be a statement from the Chair summarizing the individual’s cumulative progress toward obtaining tenure. (Section T13.7.1)

11.8.3 Independent of the Chair’s annual evaluation, the Department Promotion and Tenure Committee all participants in the Promotion and Tenure process shall provide all untenured Members of the Bargaining Unit with an annual statement summarizing the individual Member’s cumulative progress toward obtaining tenure. (Section T13.7.1)

11.x Periodic Reviews: The Provost or a provost may periodically review the productivity of Members that are either tenured or on a continuing non-tenure eligible appointment in the areas of teaching effectiveness, continued scholarship (if applicable) and service to the academic community.

11.x.1 The materials to be considered include faculty activity reports, annual evaluations, promotion and tenure documents, and if necessary, a Member’s current CV, in order to provide support to Members when needed. Should the Annual Evaluation, or a Periodic Review identify significant matters requiring remedy, the Dean and Chair shall meet with the Member to discuss and establish a program of growth. The Member shall be notified, in writing, of the final program of growth decided upon and the means of monitoring progress and success in that program.

11.x.2 In cases where areas of improvement are identified, fair and equitable steps will be taken to develop programs of growth. Programs of growth that address teaching and service shall run a minimum of two semesters. Programs of growth that address scholarship shall run a minimum of two academic years. Once a program of growth has been established, the Annual Evaluation will serve as the measure of determining success.

11.x.3 When a program of growth is developed between a Member, Chair, and Dean, the University will provide AAUP-WSU with a copy.

11.9 Merit Raises

11.9.1 The merit raise $m_i$ for an individual Member will be determined as follows.

$$m_i = \frac{p_i}{\sum_{j=1}^{n} p_j} \times \frac{M}{2} + \frac{p_i \times b_i}{\sum_{j=1}^{n} p_j \times b_j} \times \frac{M}{2}$$

where:

- $M$ is the total merit pool for the Member’s department
- $r$ is the percentage merit increase as specified in Sections 23.2.2 and 23.3.2
- $n$ is the number of Bargaining Unit Faculty in the Member’s department
- $p_i$ is the Member’s “overall score rounded to the nearest 10th” as specified in Section T11.2.6
- $b_i$ is the Member’s base salary
- $p_j$ and $b_j$ are the overall score and base salary, respectively, for all the Bargaining Unit Faculty in the Member’s department. (Here, $j$ is equal to 1,2,3, and so forth, up to $n$.)

11.8.2 Included with the Chair’s annual evaluation of all untenured Members of the Bargaining Unit shall be a statement from the Chair summarizing the individual’s cumulative progress toward obtaining tenure. (Section T13.7.1)
11.9.2 In departments where some faculty are on academic year appointments and some faculty are on fiscal year appointments, merit raises \( m_i \) will be calculated as follows:

1. The base salary of each fiscal year faculty will be converted to an academic equivalent by multiplying each fiscal base salary \( b_i \) by \( rac{9}{11} \) to obtain an adjusted base salary \( b_i^* \).
2. These adjusted base salaries \( b_i^* \) will be used in place of the corresponding fiscal base salaries \( b_i \) to compute an adjusted total merit pool \( M^* \).
3. The adjusted base salaries and the adjusted total merit pool \( M^* \) will be used to compute the merit raise \( m_i \) of each faculty member on an academic year appointment and the adjusted merit raise \( m_i^* \) of each faculty member on a fiscal year appointment.
4. For each faculty member on a fiscal year appointment, this adjusted merit raise \( m_i^* \) will be multiplied by \( rac{11}{9} \) to determine the Member’s actual merit raise \( m_i \).

11.9.3 If the merit pool \( M \) calculated in accordance with Section 11.9.1 using the actual base salaries of all Bargaining Unit Faculty (fiscal and academic) is insufficient to cover the total of merit raises when calculated using the procedure outlined in Section 11.9.2, then the University will adjust the pool to provide sufficient funds.

11.9.4 The merit raise for a Member who, due to extenuating circumstances, has no calculated overall score pursuant to Section 11.4.4 shall be computed by assigning the Member the average of the overall scores in their her or his department pursuant to Sections 11.4.1 and 11.4.2. The merit raise for a Member who does not timely submit the Faculty Activity Report, absent extenuating circumstances, shall be computed by assigning the Member a score of “0.”

11.9.5 A Member who begins employment January 1 or later shall not be eligible for a salary increase during that calendar year. A statement in or attached to the offer letters for such Members will confirm that the base salary continues through the end of the first academic year (or, if applicable, fiscal year) of employment.

11.10 Annual Evaluation Grievances.

11.10.1 Grievances alleging that a Department Chair’s annual evaluation of a Member did not reasonably comply with a specific provision(s) of this Agreement or with a specific provision(s) of the Department or College Bylaws may be filed relating to a single year’s evaluation.

11.10.1.1 Grievances pursuant to Section 11.10.1 must be filed no later than forty (40) days after a Member receives their annual evaluation or by June 1, whichever is later. Otherwise, procedures for such grievances are as specified in Article 16.

11.10.2 Grievances alleging that a Department Chair’s annual evaluations of a Member have been inconsistent with evaluations of other Members or in any other way involved a pattern of faulty judgment or prejudicial treatment, must refer to a period of at least three years, beginning no more than five years prior to the filing of the grievance.

11.10.2.1 Upon receiving a grievance pursuant to Section 11.10.2 the AAUP-WSU and the University shall form a four-member Evaluation Appeals Committee consisting of two members selected by the AAUP-WSU and two members selected by the University. None of the Committee members may be from the appellant’s department.
11.10.2.2 The appellant’s current department chair will be given an opportunity to submit a written response to the grievance, and the appellant will be given an opportunity to comment on or rebut the department chair’s statement.

11.10.2.3 The Evaluation Appeals Committee shall review materials submitted by the appellant and any response submitted by the appellant’s department chair. In addition, the Committee may request that the appellant or other persons with knowledge of the case appear before the Committee or respond to the Committee’s questions in writing.

11.10.2.4 Following the review of materials and testimony relevant to the case, the Evaluation Appeals Committee will send to the Provost and to the AAUP-WSU a report stating whether or not a significant pattern of inconsistent evaluations is substantiated, the basis for its findings, and its determination of revised evaluations for the affected years.

11.10.2.5 If the Evaluation Appeals Committee revises any annual evaluations for the grievant, the University and the AAUP-WSU will jointly calculate the grievant’s current base salary as it would have been if the revised evaluations had been awarded in the affected years.

11.10.2.6 Because the decisions of the Evaluations Appeals Committee are final, grievances submitted to that committee are not subject to arbitration by an external arbitrator.
Article 12
Student Evaluation of Learning and Teaching

12.1 All Members of the Bargaining Unit shall be evaluated in each course they teach using an online University Student Evaluation of Instruction form approved by the University and with input from the AAUP-WSU. Such agreed-upon forms are the only instruments for the University to solicit anonymous student feedback on the individual teaching performance of a Bargaining Unit Faculty Member to be used for annual evaluation, promotion and tenure or any other matter pertaining to terms and conditions of employment.

12.1.1 All information from these evaluations will be made available to the individual Member, to the Member’s Department Chair, to the Department Chair or Director of the program that offers the course, to the Member’s Dean, to the University Provost’s Office and to any Bargaining Unit Faculty Members charged with the Member’s peer review of teaching (Section 10.4.4.1.1) or progress toward tenure. As needed, the information will also be made available to those who have a need to know the information for purposes of promotion or tenure, discipline or other reasonable actions.

12.1.2 To the extent permitted by law, Deans, Department Chairs and Bargaining Unit Faculty Members will restrict access to student evaluation forms to those persons who have a need to view the information.

12.1.3 This Section shall not impair the University’s ability or obligation to produce public records, as that phrase is defined under the Ohio Public Records Act or other applicable legal authorities.

12.3 Should a Bargaining Unit Faculty Member believe that there are compelling reasons why an evaluation of a specific course in a given semester should not be considered in evaluative decisions, he or she they may submit a written request for exclusion to the Department Chair. The Chair shall respond to this request in writing. Both this request and the Chair’s written response shall be appended to the Member’s annual evaluation.

12.4 The Student Evaluation forms used to evaluate Bargaining Unit Faculty Members during the life of this Agreement shall be as follows:

Untenured TET Assistant Professors faculty who began their probationary periods at Wright State before January 1, 2016 shall be evaluated in each course they teach by an online version of the standard classroom or the online class version of the Student Evaluation of Instruction form that was in effect Fall Semester 2014. The provisions of Sections 12.6 through 12.6.2 shall apply to the evaluations of these probationary Members.

All other Bargaining Unit Faculty Members will be evaluated using the online standard classroom form or the online distance learning form that were introduced in the Fall Semester of 2015 or an online clinical experience form to be developed by the parties for use beginning in the Fall Semester of 2017.
12.4.1 Any modification of the Student Evaluation of Instruction Forms identified in Section 12.4 or introduction of new forms shall be approved by both the University and the AAUP-WSU.

12.4 The Department will maintain the Student Evaluation of instruction forms will be maintained for during at least the past seven years, for every TET Bargaining Unit Faculty Member (Section T.13.3.1) and for every NTE Bargaining Unit Faculty Member.

12.6 During their probationary period, the untenured TET Members who began their probationary period before January 1, 2016 will continue to be evaluated by the Student Evaluation forms that contain both numerical information and student comments.

12.6.1 The University and the AAUP-WSU recognize that numerical scores from these evaluations do not alone confirm or refute the effectiveness of teaching. Evaluations do not confirm nor deny an individual's or refute the effectiveness of teaching. Thus, the Chair of teaching shall consider additional factors besides such numerical scores in evaluating the teaching of these untenured Members. Low numerical scores or scores that are below college or department averages do not confirm ineffective teaching. High numerical scores or scores above college or department averages do not confirm effective teaching.

12.6.2 The University may compute average numerical scores from student evaluations on a department, program, college, or University basis. However, such averages should not reveal the scores of any individual tenured Bargaining Unit Faculty Member.

12.5 Evaluations do not alone confirm or refute the effectiveness of teaching. The chair shall consider additional factors for evaluating the teaching of Members.
Article N13-XX(NTE) Appointment and Promotion for Members with a Non-Tenure Eligible (NTE) Appointment

N13.1 Regardless of the length of appointment, no Bargaining Unit Faculty Member with a non-tenure eligible appointment (NTE) is eligible for tenure under any circumstances, and nothing in this Agreement implies tenure.

N13.1.1 Each Bargaining Unit Faculty Member not appointed in the College of Nursing and Health or the Lake Campus will have a primary appointment in an identified academic department.

N13.1.2 Titles with the modifier “Clinical” in them signify ranks in the School of Professional Psychology and Nursing that are non-tenure eligible (NTE) faculty appointments. Instructor and Clinical Assistant Professor are the ranks assigned only to those who teach courses in the College of Nursing and Health. Initial appointments are for three years and may be extended by a succeeding three-year appointment. Faculty may be appointed to a particular Clinical the rank of Clinical Instructor or Clinical Assistant Professor upon beginning Wright State employment, depending on their credentials and experience.

N13.1.3 Bargaining Unit Faculty Members with NTE appointments may have either fixed-term or continuing appointments.

N13.1.3.1 Instructors and all ranks with the modifier “of Visiting”-Professors always have fixed-term appointments.

N13.1.3.2 Lecturers, and all ranks with the modifier “Clinical”-Instructors and Clinical Assistant Professors, who signed an initial offer letter on or before April 1, 2019, have fixed-term appointments during their first six years of employment as Bargaining Unit Faculty Members. for faculty who sign an initial offer letter on or before April 1, 2019 and have fixed-term appointments during their first seven years of employment as Bargaining Unit Faculty Members for faculty who sign an initial offer letter after April 1, 2019.

N13.1.3.3 Lecturers, and all ranks with the modifier “Clinical”-Instructors and Clinical Assistant Professors, who sign an initial offer letter after April 1, 2019, have fixed-term continuing appointments during their first seven years of employment as Members beginning with the seventh year of employment as Bargaining Unit Faculty Members for faculty who sign an initial offer letter on or before April 1, 2019 and have continuing appointments beginning with the eighth year of employment as Bargaining Unit Faculty Members for faculty who sign an initial offer letter after April 1, 2019.

N13.1.3.3 Senior Lecturers always have continuing appointments.

N13.2 Fixed-term Faculty Appointments
N13.2.1 For faculty who signed an initial offer letter on or before April 1, 2019, appointments for Instructors are for one year (or, if hired as a Member within an academic year, the appointment may include that partial year and the following academic year). Instructor appointments may not be extended beyond a total of six years of service. Instructor positions carry no expectation of continuing employment. On or before the first day of the Member’s sixth year as an Instructor begins, the University will either (a) notify the faculty member that the appointment will not be continued or (b) offer a continuing appointment as a Lecturer with no specified date of termination. That is, if the university fails to notify the Member that the appointment will not be continued, then the Member will be given a continuing appointment as a Lecturer with no specified date of termination.

For faculty who signed an initial offer letter after April 1, 2019, appointments for Instructors are for one year (or, if hired as a Member within an academic year, the appointment may include that partial year and the following academic year). Instructor appointments may not be extended beyond a total of seven years of service. Instructor positions carry no expectation of continuing employment. On or before the first day of the Member’s seventh year as an Instructor begins, the University will either (a) notify the faculty member that the appointment will not be continued or (b) offer a continuing appointment as a Lecturer with no specified date of termination. That is, if the university fails to notify the Member that the appointment will not be continued, then the Member will be given a continuing appointment as a Lecturer with no specified date of termination.

N13.2.2 Appointments with the modifier “Visiting” are the rank assigned to a faculty member whose education and experience is equivalent to Wright State faculty with the corresponding rank. Visiting appointments may be made for a period of up to three years. If an initial appointment is for less than three years, it may be extended when the advertisements for the position and the appointment letter state that such extensions are possible, but the total length of a visiting appointment cannot exceed three years.

N13.2.3 Bargaining Unit Faculty Members may be appointed to the rank of Lecturer upon beginning Wright State employment or after serving for a time as an Instructor. The university’s decision to create a Lecturer position is based on university needs, regardless of the performance level of existing Instructors.

N13.2.4 Lecturers, and all ranks with the modifier “Clinical” for faculty who sign an initial offer letter on or before April 1, 2019, will receive fixed-term appointments as Lecturers, Clinical Instructors, and Clinical Assistant Professors for the smaller of (1) three years and (2) the number of years needed to bring a Member's total service as an NTE faculty member to six. On or before the first day of the a Lecturer or Clinical faculty member’s begins his or her sixth year as an NTE faculty member, the university will (a) notify that Member that the appointment will not be continued or (b) offer a continuing appointment with no identified date of termination; that is, if the university fails to notify that Member that the appointment will not be continued, then the Member will be given a continuing appointment with no identified date of termination.
Lecturers, and all ranks with the modifier “Clinical.” For faculty who sign an initial offer letter after April 1, 2019, will receive fixed-term appointments as Lecturers, Clinical Instructors, and Clinical Assistant Professors are for the smaller of (1) three years and or (2) the number of years needed to bring a Member's total service as an NTE faculty member to seven. On or before the first day of the a Lecturer or Clinical faculty member’s begins his or her seventh year as an NTE faculty member, the university will (a) notify that Member that the appointment will not be continued or (b) offer a continuing appointment with no identified date of termination; that is, if the university fails to notify that Member that the appointment will not be continued, then the Member will be given a continuing appointment with no identified date of termination.

13.2.5 A Member who has completed at least four years as an Instructor, with sustained outstanding performance, as documented in accordance with Section N13.5.2.2, will have the right of first refusal to accept a position as Lecturer that becomes available in her or his department and if the Instructor is qualified to teach all the courses for which the Lecturer position has been developed. If more than one Instructor is so qualified in a department, then the Instructor with the most seniority, based on hire date as a Bargaining Unit Faculty Member, will have the right of first refusal. If two or more qualified Instructors have the same seniority and one has significantly stronger performance than the other(s), that Member will have the right of first refusal for a Lecturer position. Otherwise, ties will be broken at random. The Department Chair will notify all eligible Instructors in his or her department if a Lecturer position becomes available in that department, and the Dean will notify eligible Instructors at Lake Campus if a Lecturer position becomes available at Lake Campus.

13.3 Continuing Faculty Appointments

13.3.1 Members for Faculty who sign an initial offer letter on or before April 1, 2019 will have a continuing appointment beginning with the seventh year as a Bargaining Unit Faculty Member at the University, a Member holding the rank of Lecturer, Clinical Instructor or Clinical Assistant Professor will have a continuing appointment (meaning, here and elsewhere, a continuing appointment with no identified date of termination). Members of Bargaining Unit Faculty with continuing appointments are not eligible for tenure, and their employment may be terminated pursuant to Articles N15 or 17. All Senior Lecturers have continuing appointments.

Any members of the Committee who have previously voted on or written a letter for the case under appeal, or are from the appellant’s college, shall recuse themselves.

N13.6.3 The Appeals Committee shall have Co-Chairs. One Co-Chair must be elected by the Faculty appointed by the AAUP-WSU, and one Co-Chair must be elected by the faculty members appointed by the University. A single chair may be elected by both constituencies.

N13.6.4 Procedures of the Promotion Appeals Committee.

N13.6.4.1 If at least three members of the Committee agree, the Committee may request that the appellant or other persons with knowledge of the case appear before the Committee or respond to the Committee’s questions in writing.

N13.6.4.2 Following the review of materials and testimony relevant to a given case, the Committee will determine if any of the criteria (a), (b), (c) listed in Section N13.6.1 appear to be substantiated. The Committee will then send to the University President a report stating its findings (as to whether or not any criteria listed in Section N13.6.1 appear to be substantiated), the basis for its findings, and its recommendations.

N13.6.4.3 Recommendations of the Committee require a majority vote, but minority opinions must be represented in the final report if the minority so desires. All voting will be by secret ballot.
N13.6.5 If the Committee is not able to reach a consensus, members of the Committee may write dissenting opinions, which shall be attached to the majority opinion. If the six-person Committee is divided three to three, then both groups will file a report. The Committee will make a good faith effort to issue its written report no later than thirty (30) working days after the appellant submits the appeal and all supporting documentation to the University President and the AAUP-WSU Grievance Officer. The Committee will send its report to the University President, with copies to the appellant and AAUP-WSU.

N13.6.6 Upon receiving the Committee’s report, the candidate has five working days to submit a letter of appeal to the University President.

N13.6.7 Within twenty (20) working days after receiving the recommendations from the Provost and from the Appeals Committee, the President will notify the candidate in writing, with a copy to AAUP-WSU, that (a) the recommendation of the Provost is being upheld, (b) the Provost’s recommendation is being overturned, and the case being presented to the Board of Trustees for approval, or (c) that the case is being remanded in a specified way for further consideration.

If the AAUP-WSU submits a promotion case to arbitration, it must do so within thirty (30) working days of receiving notice of the Board of Trustees’ the President’s disposition of the case (Section N13.6.7) decision. The arbitrator will be selected by the procedure specified in Section 16.6.1.

N13.7.2 The arbitrator shall first determine whether grounds for appeal (as outlined in Section 13.15.1) have been shown to exist by a preponderance of the evidence. If not, the grievance must be denied. But if yes, the arbitrator shall state with particularity the acts or omissions of the University which created the grounds for appeal, and shall direct the University to re-run the promotion and/or tenure process with respect to that particular member. may remand the promotion decision being grieved with directions as to which of the existing procedures in this Agreement are to be followed.

N13.7.2.1 The arbitrator may advise on altering procedures and time limits to expedite the remand process.

Section XX.X.X Credit for Prior Service in Faculty Position will be placed where appropriate in the final contract (WSU suggestion of placement at the end of the section 13.3 titled “Continuing Faculty Appointments.”)
The parties agree to count time employed in prior full-time faculty appointments (whether as TET or NTE) at Wright State University toward the time frames listed in X (currently N13.3.1). Prior service is defined as documented employment as a full-time faculty member at Wright State University.

- In cases where the gap in service is less than three years and the faculty member is returning to the same rank, all prior time at the University will automatically be counted.
- In cases where the gap in service is more than three years, but less than ten full years, the prior time will count. However, the Member will have to serve at least two years in their new appointment before being considered for continuing employment except in cases where the Member is hired on a three-year fixed-term appointment, in which case they will have to serve at least the full three-year appointment before being considered for a continuing appointment if their prior service brings them to the totals listed in 13.3.1.
- In cases where the faculty member is switching from a tenure-track position to a non-tenure track position, they will have to serve a minimum of one-year in their new appointment before being considered for continuing employment after which all prior time will count.

Article T13

Promotion and Tenure for Members with a Tenure Eligible (TET) Appointment

T13.1 Promotion and tenure are milestones in the continual process of faculty development. Bargaining Unit Faculty Members have the responsibility to help in the development of their colleagues. The University and AAUP-WSU affirm that faculty promotion and tenure are indispensable for the proper functioning of the University. Tenure promotes the retention of talented permanent faculty, secures faculty autonomy and forms the basis for the development of an intellectual community. Above all, tenure protects the academic freedom of faculty to conduct their teaching and research without constraint by interests both inside and outside the University or economic pressures.

13.3.2 When removing student evaluation forms, transcribed comments, or quantitative reports, the university will send them to the Bargaining Unit Faculty Member to whom they pertain.

13.3.3 The University shall maintain copies of all Promotion and Tenure Files submitted by Deans to the University Promotion and Tenure Committee.

If the Member is to begin employment between January 1 and the end of the Spring Semester, the letter must include an explanation pursuant to Section T11.7.3. A copy of the Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA) and Department Bylaws will be provided with the letter of appointment or alternatively the letter will contain a web address with a link to the current CBA and Department Bylaws. If the request is made after the Member has begun the third year of the probationary period, the Dean will seek recommendations regarding progress toward tenure from the Department Chair and Department Promotion and Tenure Committee. In all cases, the Dean will consult with the Provost, determine whether to grant an extension of the probationary period, and notify the Bargaining Unit Faculty Member in writing within thirty (30) working days after receiving the request. However, when a request is received after May 1 of any year and the majority of the Department Promotion and Tenure Committee’s members are on academic appointments, the Dean’s notification will be no later than October 1.

- offenses defined in Section T15.3; or
- retrenchment (Article T17).

T13.6.3 The Dean may terminate an untenured Bargaining Unit Faculty Member for deficient performance in teaching, scholarship or service. Before deciding to do so, the Dean must consult with the Department Promotion and Tenure Committee. The Committee will have the opportunity to meet, to discuss the case, and to make recommendations to the Dean before the Dean makes any decision regarding termination for deficient performance.

T13.6.3.1 If the Dean does terminate an untenured Bargaining Unit Faculty Member for deficient performance, the Dean will notify the Member in writing, with a copy to AAUP-WSU.

T13.6.3.2 If the written notice of the termination for deficient performance is made by February 1 of the probationary period’s first year, no further requirements apply. Otherwise, the termination for deficient performance can occur only if (1) such deficient performance was specified in a written evaluation, (2) at least two academic semesters were given to address any deficiency, and (3) any deficient performance continued; and, the written notice shall be made at least one semester in advance of termination of employment.
13.6.4 Untenured Bargaining Unit Faculty Members can also be terminated pursuant to Article T15 for any of the reasons set forth in Section T15.3.

13.6.4.1 A Bargaining Unit Faculty Member who has been charged with one or more offenses defined in Section T15.3 shall not receive tenure before the process prescribed by Article T15 (including external arbitration pursuant to Section T15.15 if applicable) has run to completion. If a Member is exonerated and the charges delayed her or his grant of tenure, the tenure (and promotion, if applicable) shall be made retroactive to the date it would otherwise have taken effect. If the Member is not exonerated, tenure will be denied and the Member terminated pursuant to Article T15.

13.7 Reports on Progress Toward Tenure and Promotion

13.7.1 Except during the first year of the probationary period, all untenured Bargaining Unit Faculty Members shall receive annual written statements summarizing their cumulative progress toward obtaining tenure from both their Department Chair, their Department Promotion and Tenure Committee, College Promotion & Tenure Committee, College Dean, University Promotion & Tenure Committee and Provost (Sections T11.6.2 and T11.6.3).

13.7.1.2 During the first year of the probationary period, all untenured Members shall receive a written review of their teaching from their Department Chair, based on peer review of teaching, student evaluation of instruction, and chair teaching observation or other department records, which shall be provided to the Member.

13.7.2 Reviews of tenured Bargaining Unit Faculty Members are only performed in accordance with Article 11 the Post-Tenure Review process outlined in Section X11.XX, at the request of the Member. The Department Promotion and Tenure Committee shall provide any tenured faculty member in the Bargaining Unit a statement summarizing the individual Member’s progress toward promotion provided the Member requests it in writing by the first day of classes of the Spring Semester; such a request must be sent to the Chair of the Department Promotion and Tenure Committee with a copy to the Department Chair.

13.7.3 Statements made pursuant to Sections T13.7.1 and T13.7.2 should be completed and made available to Bargaining Unit Faculty Members at least one month before the annual deadline for initiating the Promotion and Tenure process specified in Appendix D (TET) (e.g., in 2021, by February 15, 2021).

13.8 Criteria for Tenure and for Promotion

13.8.1 Criteria that a Bargaining Unit Faculty Member must meet to be tenured and to be promoted are specified in every department’s bylaws, which criteria shall be reviewed and updated at least once every five-three years and updated if deemed necessary by the department, Chair or Dean.
13.8.1.1 Department bylaws may specify more than one set of criteria to accommodate differences in academic specialties or assignments of Bargaining Unit Faculty Members in the department.

13.8.1.2 Each department’s criteria shall address the standards of acceptable performance in teaching, scholarship and service, and the methods for evaluating teaching, scholarship and service. Teaching, scholarship and service criteria may not be less than, but may be greater than, minimum standards of acceptable performance outlined in this Agreement. Teaching, scholarship and service criteria may not be less than, but may be greater than, minimum standards of acceptable performance outlined in this Agreement.

13.8.1.3 Departmental criteria and procedures should specify the extent to which previous work shall be credited to the Bargaining Unit Faculty Member. Previous work refers to publications or other academic work in teaching, scholarship or service which was substantially completed prior to tenure-track appointment at Wright State.

13.8.1.4 Every candidate for promotion and/or tenure must be evaluated according to the criteria in departmental bylaws and no other. That is, Department Promotion and Tenure Committees, Department Chairs, College Promotion and Tenure Committees, Deans, the University Promotion and Tenure Committee, the Provost, the University President, and the Board of Trustees cannot impose their own criteria. Moreover, the criteria in departmental bylaws must be taken as necessary and sufficient. That is, if a candidate meets the criteria established in bylaws, then he or she does merit promotion and/or tenure, and the recommendations of all committees and individuals must be written (and the final decision of the Board of Trustees must be made) accordingly. No bylaws criterion can be ignored or dismissed, and no additional criteria can be imposed at any point in the Promotion and Tenure process.

13.8.1.5 Quantitative requirements in bylaws assume that the Member’s accomplishments are of high quality, consistent with customary standards throughout the college. Unless otherwise specified, publications must be scholarly, peer reviewed, and in legitimate journals or books; grants must be external and competitive; committee service must be active and engaged; and so forth.

13.8.1.6 “Vanity press” books and articles published in “predatory” journals may not be used to satisfy requirements for tenure or promotion. Predatory journals typically are open access, charge a publication fee, span numerous disciplines without any recognized focus, and have no clear connection with recognized professional associations. Publication fees, agreements that authors will be responsible for a minimum number of sales, and lack of connection to a university or recognized academic publisher are possible indicators of a vanity press.

13.8.1.7 When a qualitative judgment about the quality of a candidate’s work, pursuant to Sections T13.8.1.5 or T13.8.1.6, factors into a recommendation to deny promotion and/or tenure, the Participant (whether Committee or individual), Department Chair, or Dean, Provost or President, making the recommendation is obligated to clearly and specifically explain the judgment that was made and the evidence that supports it.
13.8.2 An untenured Bargaining Unit Faculty Member seeking tenure or promotion and tenure may choose to be considered according to criteria specified in any version of the Member’s Departmental bylaws that were in effect during the probationary period or specified in the letter of appointment.

13.8.3 A tenured Bargaining Unit Faculty Member seeking promotion may choose to be considered according to criteria specified in any version of the Member’s Departmental bylaws that were in effect during any time within six years before the date on which the requested promotion would be effective.

13.8.4 Department promotion and tenure criteria and procedures may be amended in accordance with changes to the bylaws in Article 10 by approval of the Bargaining Unit Faculty Members of a department, the Dean, and the Faculty Governance Committee, and the Provost.

13.8.5 All Bargaining Unit Faculty Members in a department shall be notified, either in writing or electronically, when departmental promotion and tenure criteria or procedures are changed.

13.8.6 Tenured Members may choose to be considered for promotion in any year.

13.8.7 Untenured Members may choose to be considered for promotion and tenure (or tenure only) in any year during their probationary period.

13.8.8 Bylaws criteria that state or clearly imply the need to demonstrate a pattern of performance over time (such as teaching effectiveness, service participation or leadership, research recognition, and so forth) require a minimum of two years to be met. Thus, a Member who demonstrates the required pattern of performance over two academic years may initiate the promotion process by the deadline specified in Appendix D (TET) (e.g., March 15, 2021) of the second of those years for consideration during the following academic year. Unless otherwise directed in the Bylaws, well-documented performance as a professorial faculty member at another university may be used to demonstrate that such patterns have been achieved.

13.8.9 Tenure shall be granted to those Assistant Professors who are promoted to the rank of Associate Professor. Only under exceptional circumstances shall Assistant Professors be granted tenure without promotion to Associate Professor, and then only if department bylaws contain criteria for tenure at the rank of Assistant Professor.

13.9 Participants in the Promotion and Tenure Process.

All grants of tenure or promotion are made by the Wright State University Board of Trustees based on review and recommendations from the committees and individuals named in Sections T13.9.1 through T13.9.6, below.

If a participant is involved in more than one committee or step of the promotion process, they shall have no more than one vote or recommendation, or (in the case of a Dean) one vote and a required individual statement, on a candidate’s promotion and/or tenure. The vote that will count will be the highest level of participation in the process (e.g., if a Member serves on both the Department and University Committee, it is the University Committee vote that would
That is, a Bargaining Unit Faculty Member may vote on two, but not all three Promotion and Tenure committees (Department, College, University) in a specific case, but shall have the right to choose where to submit their vote or recommendation. 13.10 The Promotion and Tenure Document.

The candidate’s Promotion and Tenure Document (Section T13.2.5), as submitted by the candidate on or before the deadline specified in Appendix D (TET) (e.g., in 2021, September 7), may not be altered without permission of the candidate and the Department Chair. The Document cannot be altered after it has been voted on by the College Promotion and Tenure Committee. The Document becomes part of the tenure and promotion file to which the candidate may add only letters of rebuttal and/or evidence to support the letter(s) of rebuttal. A rebuttal letter and supporting evidence may confirm publication of an item listed in the curriculum vitae as under review, but it cannot admit previously unlisted works into the Member’s record of scholarship. The Document shall contain the items listed in Sections T13.10.1 through T13.10.8 below, and the candidate will arrange these items in the order listed (e.g., candidate review statement first, applicable promotion and tenure criteria second, etc.).

- T13.10.1 the candidate review statement, which shall include a list of appended items, if any (Appendix A (TET)).
- T13.10.2 applicable department promotion and tenure criteria.
- T13.10.3 written notification from the Dean (Section T13.5.4.5) of any approved extension(s) of the probationary period.
- T13.10.4 reports on peer evaluation of teaching (Section 10.4.4.1.1).

Untenured Bargaining Unit Faculty Members who are applying for tenure or for promotion must include a statistical summary and frequency distributions of all qualitative and quantitative required student evaluations of teaching pursuant to Article 12 of this Agreement, unless stipulated otherwise in departmental bylaws. If a Member provides comments from narrative teaching evaluations, they may not do so selectively, but must include all comments from courses selected as evidence of teaching effectiveness. In any case a Member must only provide evidence from 75% of courses taught during the probationary period or since their last promotion.
- T13.10.7 the candidate’s curriculum vitae, which must include a description of the candidate’s teaching, scholarship, and service. See Appendix B for suggested content and format of the curriculum vitae.
- T13.10.8 The evidence of teaching effectiveness (Section T13.10.6) and curriculum vitae (Section T13.10.7) may, together, total no more than thirty-five pages. Promotion and tenure documents provided by successful candidates are frequently much shorter than thirty-five pages.

T13.10.9 Appropriate additional items may be appended to the Document, and the Member must insert a list of all such Appendix items at the end of her or his Candidate Review Statement. These items are normally not transmitted beyond the level of the Department Committee, but the Department Chair will make them available to all members of the College and University Committees process who request them.

However, publications used to document a successful promotion or tenure application in the past need not be submitted unless specifically requested by the Department Chair, the Dean, or the chair of a promotion and tenure committee. The Department Chair will make these materials available to all members of the Department Promotion and Tenure Committee, and the Dean will make these materials available to all members of the College Promotion and Tenure Committee. These copies of the Member’s scholarly work are normally not transmitted beyond the level of the College Committee, but the Dean will make them available to all members of the University Promotion and Tenure Committee who request to see them.

T13.11.2 On the CV, each publication that is listed must include all authors, full title, publisher or journal, and, if known, volume, inclusive pages, and date of publication. When there are multiple authors and one is the primary author, that name should be clearly so identified. Citations of articles and papers should indicate whether the work was refereed (R) or not refereed (N). Items which have not yet been published but have been accepted for publication without revision shall be listed on the CV as “in press.”

T13.11.3 A candidate’s academic paper, book or similar work which has been accepted for publication but is not yet published shall be credited to the Bargaining Unit Faculty Member if the Member supplies adequate documentation confirming that the work is definitely scheduled for publication without further revision.

T13.11.4 A publication may not be considered unless: (a) it is reported on the Member’s curriculum vitae and the Member submits a complete copy of the publication to the Department Chair by the deadline specified in Appendix D (TET) (e.g., in 2021, September 7), (b) the venue (e.g., journal for articles; publisher for books) is as specified on the CV in the Promotion and Tenure Document as submitted by the deadline specified in Appendix D (TET) (e.g., in 2021, September 7); and (c) confirmation that it has been accepted for publication without revision is received before the University Promotion and Tenure Committee meets.

T13.11.5 Manuscripts which have been submitted and are currently under review may be listed. Each listing must include the date(s) of submission, the name of the journal or publisher submitted to, and any review of the work which has been completed.

T13.11.6 Requirements for scholarly works other than publications (e.g., those in the fine and performing arts) are substantially the same as those specified for publications in Sections T13.11.1 through T13.11.5.

T13.12 The Promotion and Tenure File

The Promotion and Tenure File initially consists of the Promotion and Tenure Document and the form shown in Appendix C (TET) used to record votes and recommendations. The file will eventually also contain rebuttal materials (if any) added by the candidate and items specified in Sections T13.12.1 through T13.12.4. At any time throughout the process and after its completion, the candidate has the right to access and obtain copies of the Promotion and Tenure File.

- T13.12.1 letters of evaluation by external or internal reviewers, copies of letters soliciting the reviews and brief statements of the reviewers’ qualifications.

T13.13 Procedures for Granting Promotion and Tenure

T13.13.1 The deadlines for completion of promotion and tenure documents and files are set forth in Appendix D (TET).

T13.13.2 The process for granting promotion and/or tenure to a Bargaining Unit Faculty Member must be initiated by the candidate at the departmental level, except as provided for in Section T13.8.8, but of course however, a Promotion and Tenure Committee may, at any time, recommend that an individual initiate the process. To initiate the Promotion and Tenure Process, a Bargaining Unit Faculty Member must submit a written request to the Department Chair, with a copy to the Department Promotion and Tenure Committee, by the deadline specified in Appendix D (TET) (e.g., in 2021, by March 15, 2021).

T13.13.2.1 If missing the aforementioned deadline would prevent a Member from being considered in the final year of his or her probationary period, then the Member will be allowed to go forward. If successful in obtaining promotion and tenure, however, the Member’s percentage promotion raise (pursuant to Section 23.4) plus any promotion-based raise (pursuant to Article 24) will be delayed for one year but included in the base salary used to calculate any raise for the following year.

T13.13.2.2 Once the promotion and/or tenure process has begun, only the candidate may terminate the process. To do so, the candidate must submit written notice of withdrawal to the Department Chair, who will then convey this information to the Dean and the Provost, as appropriate. Upon receiving written notice to terminate the process, the University will return the file to the candidate. Candidates are encouraged to retain their withdrawn file and any related correspondence.
13.13.3 By the deadline specified in Appendix D (TET) (e.g., in 2021, by March 15, 2021), the candidate must submit suggested names of external reviewers to the chair of the Department Promotion and Tenure Committee.

13.13.3.1 By the deadline specified in Appendix D (TET) (e.g., in 2021, by April 12, 2021), the candidate must submit materials to be sent to the outside reviewers.

13.13.3.2 The candidate and the Department Promotion and Tenure Committee shall agree on a list of individuals from whom letters of evaluation will be solicited, and the Committee is responsible for soliciting the evaluations from that list by sending out request letters no later than the deadline specified in Appendix D (TET) (e.g., in 2021, by August 16, 2021). All letters sent by the Committee to solicit external reviews shall be given to the candidate when they are written, and they will subsequently be added to the promotion and tenure file. The letters used to solicit these external reviews shall be consistent with the applicable bylaws. At least three letters of evaluation from peers external to the University who can review the case in an unbiased manner (no co-authors, thesis advisors, or other persons who might have a conflict of interest) must be solicited for all promotion and/or tenure decisions. All letters received from external reviewers shall be included in the file. The external evaluators should be experts in the field of the candidate, and, if they are faculty members at academic institutions, they should hold at least the rank to which the candidate aspires or its equivalent. These letters should evaluate the candidate’s scholarly activities. They should not be testimonial in character, and they should not relate to promotion and tenure at the writers’ institutions.

13.13.3.3 Departmental bylaws may specify which materials will be provided to external reviewers. Departmental bylaws may alternatively specify a process by which the material provided to external reviewers will be decided upon. Otherwise, external reviewers will be provided with a copy of each item of scholarship listed on the CV since the candidate’s last promotion as published or in press (Section T13.11.2), at a minimum, plus other items from the CV agreed to by both the candidate and the Department Promotion and Tenure Committee.

13.13.4 By the deadline specified in Appendix D (TET) (e.g., in 2021, by September 7, 2021), the candidate must submit to the Department Chair the complete Promotion and Tenure Document (Section T13.10) and all materials described in Section T13.11 and its subsections.

13.13.5 The Department Promotion and Tenure Committee evaluates each candidate using the applicable departmental criteria for that candidate.

13.13.5.1 The vote and recommendations of the Department Promotion and Tenure Committee shall be communicated in a statement written by the chair of the Promotion and Tenure committee, in consultation with the other voting members of the Committee, unless department bylaws specify another procedure for writing such a statement or the Committee is chaired by the department chair. If the department chair serves as chair of the Promotion and Tenure Committee, and no procedure is specified in the bylaws, then the Committee will elect one of its voting members to write the statement.

13.13.5.2 The Committee’s statement shall reflect the Committee’s vote and explain the reasoning for its conclusions. This statement must either (1) be consistent with the Committee’s reports on progress toward tenure and promotion (Section T13.7) or (2) explain the reasoning for any inconsistencies.

T13.13.5.3 In the case of a Bargaining Unit Faculty Member applying for tenure, both the statements of the Chair and the recommendation of the Department Promotion and Tenure Committee shall include an evaluation of the candidate’s teaching effectiveness based in part on peer evaluation by Bargaining Unit Faculty Members shall be considered at each level of evaluation of the promotion and/or tenure process (Section T11.6.1).

T13.13.5.4 If a candidate who has reported on the CV works of printed scholarship that are under review (or grant proposals that are under review) receives a negative vote from the Department Committee, then (1) the Committee’s statement shall indicate the extent to which each pending item meets bylaws criteria and/or (2) the Committee shall cast and report a contingent vote(s) that would determine its recommendation had the item(s) under review been accepted for publication without revision (or the pending grant proposal been funded) before the Department Committee’s vote.

The actual deadline in a given year is set forth in Appendix D (TET). In a rebuttal letter, the candidate may (1) challenge assertions or conclusions in the file and/or (2) report the acceptance or publication of a work of printed scholarship and/or the awarding of a grant. The rebuttal letter(s) and supporting evidence will be added to the candidate’s promotion and tenure file and will be given full consideration at all subsequent stages of the promotion and tenure process. At each stage, a rebuttal letter and supporting evidence may not exceed fifteen pages, although it may reference additional items with instructions as to where and how they may be inspected.

T13.13.7.1 By the deadline specified in Appendix D (TET), the Department Chair will transmit the file to the Dean.

T13.11.2) of the decision and vote of the University Promotion and Tenure Committee and the Provost to notify in writing both the Provost and the AAUP-WSU Grievance Officer of her or his intent to file an appeal. The actual deadline in a given year is set forth in Appendix D (TET). The appeal and all supporting documentation must be submitted to the Provost
President and the AAUP-WSU Grievance Officer by the deadline set forth in Appendix D (TET), which is at least fifteen (15) working days after the candidate receives written notification of the decision and vote of the University Promotion and Tenure Committee and that of the Provost and that of the Provost.

T13.14.2 Upon receiving a written notification of the intent to file an appeal from one or more
Bargaining Unit Faculty Members, the AAUP-WSU and the University shall form a Promotion and Tenure Appeals Committee consisting of three tenured Bargaining Unit Faculty Members selected by the AAUP-WSU and three department chairs, assistant deans, or associate deans who are also tenured faculty selected by the University. In addition, the AAUP-WSU and the University will each appoint two alternate members to the Committee. Each of the members, including the alternates, selected by the AAUP-WSU must be from different colleges. Likewise, each of the members, including the alternates, selected by the University must be from different colleges. The Committee will be formed within ten (10) working days after notice of intent to file an appeal is received (see Section T13.14.1). All meetings of the Promotion and Tenure Appeals Committee will include exactly six voting members: three Bargaining Unit Faculty Members appointed by the AAUP-WSU and three faculty (department chairs, assistant or associate deans) appointed by the University. Any members of the Committee who have previously voted on or written a letter for the case under appeal or are from the appellant’s college shall recuse themselves.

13.14.3 The Promotion and Tenure Appeals Committee shall have Co-Chairs. One Co-Chair must be elected by the Bargaining Unit Faculty Members appointed by the AAUP-WSU, and one Co-Chair must be elected by the faculty members appointed by the University. A single chair may be elected by both constituencies.

13.14.4 Procedures of the Promotion and Tenure Appeals Committee.

13.14.4.1 If at least three members of the Committee agree, the Committee may request that the appellant or other persons with knowledge of the case appear before the Committee or respond to the Committee’s questions in writing.

13.14.4.2 Following the review of materials and testimony relevant to a given case, the Committee will determine if any of the criteria (a), (b), (c) listed in Section T13.14.1 appear to be substantiated. The Committee will then send to the President a report stating its findings (as to whether or not any criteria listed in Section T13.14.1 appear to be substantiated), the basis for its findings, and its recommendations.

13.14.4.3 Recommendations of the Committee require a majority vote, but minority opinions must be represented in the final report if the minority so desires. All voting will be by secret ballot.

13.14.5 If the Committee is not able to reach a consensus, members of the Committee may write dissenting opinions, which shall be attached to the majority opinion. If the six-person Committee is divided three to three, then both groups will file a report. The Committee will make a good faith effort to issue its written report no later than thirty (30) working days after the appellant submits the appeal and all supporting documentation to the Provost and the AAUP-WSU Grievance Officer. The Committee will send its report to the President of the University, with copies to the appellant and AAUP-WSU.

13.14.6 Upon receiving the Committee’s report, the candidate has five working days to submit a letter of appeal to the University President.

13.14.7 Within twenty (20) working days after receiving the recommendations from the Appeals Committee, the President will notify the candidate in writing, with a copy to AAUP-WSU, that (a) the recommendation of the University Promotion and Tenure Committee and/or Provost and/or Provost is being upheld, (b) that Committee’s or Provost’s or Provost’s recommendation is being overturned, and the case being presented to the Board of Trustees for approval, or (c) that the case is being remanded in a specified way for further consideration.

13.14.8 If the Board of Trustees approves a promotion or grant of tenure based in whole or in part on a Promotion and Tenure Appeals Committee recommendation, the promotion and/or tenure shall be made retroactive to the normal promotion date for candidates from that department.

T13.15 Promotion and Tenure Grievances.

T13.15.1 In lieu of appeal, a promotion or tenure case not resolved by appeal (as per T13.4) not resolved by appeal (Section T13.14) may be grieved and go directly to arbitration if the AAUP-WSU concurs with the candidate that (a) an error in the described procedures materially affected the outcome, (b) the decision was not based upon the applicable criteria included in the Promotion and Tenure File, or (c) the outcome was arbitrary, discriminatory or capricious. If the AAUP-WSU submits a promotion or tenure case to arbitration, it must do so within thirty (30) working days of receiving notice of the Board of Trustees’ decision. The arbitrator will be selected by the procedure specified in Section 16.6.1.

T13.15.2 The arbitrator shall first determine whether grounds for appeal (as outlined in Section 13.15.1) have been shown to exist by a preponderance of the evidence. If not, the grievance must be denied. But if yes, the arbitrator shall state with particularity the acts or omissions of the University which created the grounds for appeal, and shall direct the University to re-run the promotion and/or tenure process with respect to that particular member. If appropriate, grant an additional terminal year.

T13.15.2.1 The arbitrator may advise on altering procedures and time limits to expedite the remand process.

T13.15.2.2 The arbitrator does not have authority to award promotion or tenure to a Bargaining Unit Faculty Member.

T13.15.3 Individuals and committees to whom a promotion or tenure case is remanded will duly consider all advice and recommendations of the arbitrator.

T13.15.54 A tenure case may be sent to arbitration only one time. A promotion case may be sent to arbitration no more than once every three years.
Article 14

Discipline

14.1 The University has and retains the right to apply discipline up to and including termination of a Bargaining Unit Faculty Member pursuant to Articles 14, T15, and N15. The University subscribes to the principles of progressive discipline except when summary action is necessary and appropriate. In determining whether or not to impose discipline and the severity of such discipline the University shall consider the severity of the Bargaining Unit Faculty Member’s conduct and his or her disciplinary record, and the provisions in Article 5, “Academic Freedom and Professional Responsibilities.”

14.1.1 The Office of the Provost shall be consulted on all disciplinary measures, and a provost or designee shall be present for all disciplinary meetings.

14.1.2 Except for suspensions paid administrative leave pursuant to Section 14.3, disciplinary measures of suspension without pay (of more than three days) or of termination of employment shall be imposed in accordance with procedures outlined in Article T15 or N15.

14.2 The University will not impose discipline except for just cause.

14.3 When, in the judgment of the President or a provost, the presence of a Bargaining Unit Faculty Member on University premises or other participation in University activities or operations presents a threat to health or safety of any person in the University community or represents a threat of disruption of, or interference with, any normal and lawful activities of the University, its staff or students, the President or a provost may suspend place the Member on paid administrative leave pending the disposition investigation and resolution of the disciplinary process provided for under Articles 14, T15, and N15. Such suspension shall be with pay, although the allegations. The University is not obligated to pay a Member who has been convicted of a crime and, or is incarcerated for that crime. The President or a provost may also direct that the Member be removed and barred from University premises, be blocked from University email and other electronic systems, cease performing job functions or holding themselves out as a representative of the University, or any other measures reasonably designed to further or protect related University interests.

14.4 When the University has reason to believe an incident(s) has occurred which might constitute grounds for discipline, it may conduct an investigation.

14.4.1 As part of this investigation a chair, dean or provost may ask to speak informally with a Bargaining Unit Faculty Member about the incident, and statements made during such discussions may be used subsequently in the discipline process. Members may refuse to discuss an incident or may have an AAUP-WSU representative present at such discussions.

14.4.2 Unless there is reasonable suspicion of unlawful or criminal activity, the University shall inform the Bargaining Unit Faculty Member and AAUP-WSU in writing of the allegation(s) if the University undertakes a formal investigation involving third parties, the keeping of formal records, or multiple interviews with the Member toward whom the allegations are directed.
14.4.3 The University will notify the AAUP-WSU in advance of any meeting to be held with a Bargaining Unit Member as part of a formal investigation that could lead to disciplining that Member. The Member has the right to be accompanied by an AAUP-WSU representative at any such meeting.

14.5 Before imposing disciplinary action, a department chair, dean, or provost will hold a disciplinary meeting with the Bargaining Unit Faculty Member to discuss the charge/allegation(s) against the Member and provide the Member with an opportunity to present his or her case.

14.5.1 The Bargaining Unit Faculty Member shall be given the opportunity to be accompanied by an AAUP-WSU representative at the disciplinary meeting.

14.5.2 Unless the Member and representatives from both the AAUP-WSU and the University agree to a shorter time, at least five (5) working days before the disciplinary meeting, the University shall notify both the Bargaining Unit Faculty Member and the AAUP-WSU of the specific charge/allegations(s) to be discussed at the meeting.

14.5.3 If the matter is not disposed of by mutual agreement at the disciplinary meeting and the University decides to impose discipline more severe than a letter of reprimand, the University shall send the Bargaining Unit Faculty Member and the AAUP-WSU a written statement of the charges/allegations and the discipline imposed. Such statement/statements will be signed by a provost.

14.5.4 For serious or repeat offenses, discipline the University might impose includes but is not restricted to the following measures: required training (such as diversity or anger management); denial of summer teaching opportunities pursuant to Section 7.8.1; adjustments to the weights applied for annual evaluation pursuant to Section T11.2.6 or N11.2.6; paid suspension; unpaid suspension for up to three days pursuant to this Article 14, or longer unpaid suspension pursuant to Article T15 or N15 (The calculation of unpaid suspension days shall follow the formula used to calculate sick leave payout in Section 28.9.1); and termination pursuant to Article T15 or N15. The University will pay for the costs incurred the first time a Member is required to undergo training as a disciplinary measure.
Article 15 Termination and Unpaid Suspension

15.1 Subject to the provisions of Article 17, the University has and retains the right to terminate the employment of a Member. In addition, a Member may be suspended without pay or terminated pursuant to the provisions of this Article.

15.2 Termination of a tenured Member pursuant to this Article automatically includes the removal of that Member’s tenure.

15.3 A Member may be suspended without pay or terminated for just cause, which includes but is not limited to (a) fraudulent credentials pertaining to employment at WSU, (b) demonstrated incompetence or dishonesty in teaching, scholarship, or professional service; (c) substantial and manifest neglect of duty; (d) personal conduct which presents a serious threat to health or safety of any person in the University community, severe or continuing harassment or discrimination, or other behavior that otherwise substantially impairs the Member’s fulfillment of the institutional responsibilities; (e) malicious conduct which directly obstructs the performance of instructional or scholarly programs authorized or permitted by the University; or (f) conviction of a crime involving an offense of violence as defined in division (A)(9)(a) of Section 2901.01 of the Ohio Revised Code as of January 1, 2008 or a substantially equivalent offense under federal law or a municipal ordinance, (g) revocation of required professional licensure., Suspension without pay or termination for reasons not enumerated in (a) – (g) must be commensurate with the nature and gravity of the offenses listed above.

15.3.1 Upon determining that a Member has been unavailable for service without authorization from the University for a period of more than one month, the University may suspend all pay and benefits for that Member once it has formally charged the Member with substantial and manifest neglect or duty pursuant to Section 15.3. At the discretion of the University, the Member’s pay will continue to be suspended pending the outcome of the process described in Sections 15.4- T15.15.

15.4 Charges may be initiated against a Member by the University. Such charges shall be made in writing with reasonable particularity of the grounds for termination or suspension without pay based on Section 15.3 and shall be presented to the President Provost of the University.

15.5 The University President Provost shall, as soon as possible, inform the accused Member and the AAUP-WSU in writing of the charges.

15.6 Informal meeting: Before a formal hearing is conducted, the University President Provost or designee shall call a meeting with the charging party, the accused Member, and a representative of the AAUP-WSU. The purpose of this meeting shall be to attempt resolution of the matter through informal discussion. Additional meetings may occur provided the University President Provost or designee and the Member being charged believe that further meetings will serve a useful purpose.

15.7 Formal hearing: If after the informal meeting, the University President Provost or designee determines that charges are warranted, they shall call for the creation of a Hearing Board of six members.
15.8 The Hearing Board shall be created in the following manner: For TET Members, the AAUP-WSU and the University shall form a Hearing Board consisting of three tenured Members selected by the AAUP-WSU and three department chairs, assistant or associate deans selected by the University. For NTE Members, the AAUP-WSU and the University shall form a Hearing Board consisting of three Members, at least one of whom must be a Senior Lecturer selected by the AAUP-WSU and three department chairs, assistant or associate deans selected by the University. The AAUP-WSU and the University shall select the members of this Board on the basis of their objectivity and competence and of the regard in which they are held in the academic community.

15.9 The President, Provost or designee shall notify in writing the accused Member and the administrator initiating charges of the intended hearing and of the composition of the Hearing Board. The Hearing Board will be convened by the President of AAUP-WSU (or designee) and the Provost (or designee). At this time the Committee will elect a Chair or Co-Chairs and determine the rules governing the hearing. The Hearing Board shall communicate in writing the scheduled date, place, and time of the hearing and provide to all parties concerned an explanation of the rules under which the hearing shall be conducted.

15.10 The parties will provide the names of all potential witnesses to the accused Member, the Member’s counsel (who, here and elsewhere in this Article, shall be at the Member’s expense), and AAUP-WSU representatives in a timely manner.

15.11 Both the accused Member and the administrator initiating charges may be represented by counsel, present, confront and cross-examine witnesses, and be present to hear all evidence and arguments given at all meetings of the Hearing Board. Both the AAUP-WSU and the University are entitled to have representatives present at any hearing. The accused Member may choose not to testify or answer questions at this hearing. However, such failure may be taken into consideration by the Hearing Board. Members of the Hearing Board may question all witnesses appearing before the Board. The charging party has the burden of proving to the Hearing Board that, on the basis of clear and convincing evidence, the charge(s) has been established. The hearing shall be conducted in private.

15.12 When all witnesses summoned and able to appear have presented testimony and when cross-examination has been conducted, the Board shall retire to make its recommendation. If it finds against the accused, the Hearing Board may recommend such penalty as it deems fair and appropriate, including termination or suspension or lesser penalties. All decisions of the Hearing Board shall be made by a majority vote of all its members, and its recommendation immediately shall be communicated in writing to the University President, the Provost, the accused Member, the AAUP-WSU, and the charging party. If the Hearing Board is evenly split, both groups from the Hearing Board shall prepare written recommendations and findings. A verbatim, written record of the hearing, including all findings and recommendations, shall be sent to the University President, the Provost, the accused, the AAUP-WSU and the charging party as soon as possible following the conclusion of the hearing. (This verbatim record may be taken by a stenographer or transcribed from electronic recording equipment.)

15.13 Within twenty (20) working days after receiving the recommendation of the Hearing Board, the President will (a) recommend to the Board of Trustees that the accused be either suspended without pay for an identified period of time or terminated, (b) dismiss the charges, or
(c) impose a specified lesser or greater or other penalty. Both the accused Member and AAUP-WSU will be promptly notified of the Board of Trustees decision.

15.14 A penalty of suspension without pay shall not exceed three (3) years, and during this time a suspended Member may purchase benefits from the University at his or her own expense.

15.15 At the sole discretion of the AAUP-WSU, the final decision may be taken directly to binding arbitration. A Member who wants his or her case taken to binding arbitration must file a request in writing with the AAUP-WSU within 15 business days of receiving the Board of Trustees’ decision. The timelines, procedures and the costs of arbitration will be governed by the provisions concerning arbitration in Section 16.6.
Article 16
Grievance and Arbitration

16.1 The parties recognize and endorse the importance of establishing a prompt, fair and efficient mechanism for the orderly resolution of complaints and agree to make every effort to encourage the informal resolution of complaints before they become formal grievances. Any formal or informal resolution achieved must be consistent with the terms of this Agreement, and neither party shall unreasonably delay or impede the process as stipulated herein. The procedures set forth in this Article shall be the sole and exclusive method of disposing of grievances.

16.2 Definitions.

16.2.1 Grievance: A grievance is an alleged violation of (1) a specific provision(s) of this Agreement, (2) procedures set forth in college bylaws or department bylaws, or (3) a signed agreement between AAUP-WSU and the University unless that agreement specifically precludes a grievance or specifies an alternative procedure for resolving disputes.

16.2.2 If the AAUP-WSU files a grievance on behalf of a group, the outcome will apply equally to all applicable Members of the Bargaining Unit.

16.2.3 Grievant: A Grievant is a Bargaining Unit Faculty Member or group of Bargaining Unit Faculty Members who has a grievance or the AAUP-WSU acting on behalf of Members of the Bargaining Unit.

16.2.4 Respond and File: The terms “respond” and “file,” as used in this Article, refer to the dates notifications are received (or reasonably should have been received) by the parties to whom they are sent. Copies of all notifications will be sent to the AAUP-WSU and to the Provost.

16.2.5 Basic Provisions: Except as specified in Sections T11.8 or N11.7, T13.15 or N13.7, and T15.15 or N15.9, all applicable steps of the grievance procedure set forth in this Agreement will be pursued to completion before any application for arbitration will be made, unless the AAUP-WSU and the University enter into a written agreement to proceed directly to arbitration.

16.2.6 Unless extended by mutual consent, in writing, the time limits specified herein will be the maximum time allowed. If the University fails to comply with the time limits to respond, the Grievant may advance the grievance to the next step by sending a letter of notification to the administrator at the next step. Failure to advance the grievance shall render the grievance moot.

16.2.7 Unless mutually agreed upon by the University and the AAUP-WSU, the grievance and arbitration process shall be suspended over a period of time when Members are not contractually obligated to be available, as stipulated in 7.4.1 and 7.7.1.

16.2.8 Provisions for grievances regarding promotion and tenure (TET) are described in Section T13.15 and regarding promotion (NTE) are described in N13.7. Provisions for initiating grievances regarding annual evaluation are described in Section T11.8 or N11.7.
16.3 Informal Complaint Procedure: The parties intend and agree that all disputes should be resolved informally, whenever possible, before the filing of a formal grievance, and the parties encourage open communications so that resorting to the formal grievance procedure will not be necessary. To this end, Bargaining Unit Faculty Members are encouraged to present a complaint to a chair, dean, or provost who the Grievant believes to be most likely able to resolve the complaint as soon as practical for the purposes of resolving the dispute. A discussion of the complaint between the Grievant and the administrator to whom the complaint is presented shall occur at a mutually agreeable time not later than five (5) days after the request for a discussion regarding the complaint. Unless otherwise agreed by both the Grievant and administrator to whom the grievance is presented, only the grievant and this administrator will be present at the meeting to discuss the complaint. However, a grieving party has the right to be advised or assisted by the AAUP-WSU in attempting to secure an informal resolution, but such assistance is not required. Any settlement, withdrawal, or other disposition of a complaint at the informal stage shall not constitute a binding precedent in the settlement of complaints or grievances.

16.4 Grievance Step One: A Bargaining Unit Faculty Any Member(s) or the AAUP-WSU may file a grievance with the Associate Provost for Faculty and Staff Affairs not later than forty (40) days after the event giving rise to the grievance or no later than forty (40) days after the Grievant knew or reasonably should have known of the event giving rise to the grievance.

16.4.1 The Grievant shall state clearly on the grievance form in Appendix F the nature of the grievance, the contractual provision(s) allegedly violated, the name of the University administrator whose actions are being grieved (if known), the dates when the alleged act or omission giving rise to the grievance occurred, and the remedy sought. The Grievant shall also sign the form and submit it to the Associate Provost with a copy to AAUP-WSU. If the Grievant is the AAUP-WSU, the grievance form shall so state. In the case of a grievance filed by the AAUP-WSU, the President or Designee of AAUP-WSU shall sign the grievance form and shall be the AAUP-WSU’s representative. Forms may be signed and filed electronically.

16.4.2 The University shall inform AAUP-WSU of any grievance meeting and AAUP-WSU has the right to be present at any grievance meeting. The Dean or Provost may also have a second person attend any grievance meeting. No attorney representing either party will attend any grievance meeting.

16.4.3 A Dean or Provost shall hold a meeting with the Grievant and the AAUP-WSU’s representative (if the AAUP elects to be present) at a mutually agreeable time and location, including the option of a virtual meeting, within ten (10) days after the grievance was filed and shall then respond in writing to the Grievant and the AAUP-WSU no later than fifteen (15) days after the completion of the grievance meeting(s). If the Grievant or the AAUP-WSU does not accept the Step One answer, either may, within fifteen (15) days, file a Step Two grievance with the Associate Provost.

16.4.4 However, if the Step One grievance was convened by the Provost, then there will be no Step Two Grievance; but, if the AAUP-WSU is not satisfied with the Step One answer, it shall have the sole right to submit the grievance to arbitration by an external arbitrator within thirty (30) days after receiving the Step One answer.

16.5 Grievance Step Two: Upon receiving a Step Two grievance, the Provost or Associate Provost shall hold a meeting with the Grievant and the AAUP-WSU’s representative (if the AAUP elects to be present) at a mutually agreeable time and location, including the option of a virtual meeting, within ten (10) days after the Associate Provost has received the grievance. The purpose of this meeting is to discuss and attempt to resolve the grievance. The provost who holds the meeting shall respond in writing to the Grievant and the AAUP-WSU no later than fifteen (15) days after the completion of the grievance meeting(s).

16.6 Arbitration: If the AAUP-WSU is not satisfied with the Step Two answer, it shall have the sole right to submit the grievance to arbitration by an external arbitrator, within thirty (30) days after receiving the Step Two answer. A Grievant who is not satisfied with the Step Two answer (or, if Section 16.4.4 applies, the Step One answer) may request that AAUP-WSU submit the grievance to arbitration, but the Grievant must do so in writing within ten (10) days after receiving the Step Two (respectively Step One) answer; however, AAUP-WSU is not obligated to accept such a request.

16.6.1 If the AAUP-WSU elects to pursue external arbitration, representatives of the AAUP-WSU and of the Provost shall meet within ten (10) days to select an arbitrator. In the event the parties are unable to agree upon an arbitrator, the parties shall ask either the American Arbitration Association (AAA) or the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (FMCS) to provide fifteen names. If the parties are unable to agree on which of the 15 nominees shall serve as an arbitrator, then the arbitrator will be chosen by each party alternately striking names.

16.6.2 The arbitrator’s decision shall be final and binding upon the Grievant(s), the AAUP-WSU, and the University and shall be rendered within thirty (30) days after the arbitration hearing record is closed.

16.6.3 The cost of the arbitration shall be borne equally by the University and the AAUP-WSU except that costs related to the appearance of any witness shall be paid by the party who calls that witness. If a court reporter is requested and a transcript ordered by only one party, the court reporter’s attendance fee, and the cost of transcripts for that party and the arbitrator shall be borne by the requesting party. If both sides request a transcript, the court reporter’s fee and the cost of the transcripts shall be split equally between the parties.

16.6.4 Remedies. The external arbitrator assigned to hearing a grievance shall be bound by the following restrictions:

16.6.4.1 The arbitrator’s decision shall be limited to only the question or questions submitted for decision;

16.6.4.2 The arbitrator shall not substitute a judgment for that of the University where the University’s judgment and actions do not violate the written provisions of this Agreement;
16.6.4.3 The arbitrator shall have no authority to add to, subtract from, alter, change or modify any of the provisions of this Agreement;

16.6.4.4 The arbitrator shall not render any decision which would result in the violation of state or federal law; and

16.6.4.5 The arbitrator shall make no award that provides a Bargaining Unit Faculty Member compensation greater than would have resulted had there been no violation.

16.7 A Member of the Bargaining Unit who participates in a grievance procedure will not be subject to disciplinary reprisal or retribution because of such participation.

16.8 To investigate and process a grievance, either party shall be provided the opportunity to inspect and/or copy any relevant information possessed by the other party. Such access will be provided within five (5) days after the delivery of a written request to the Provost or the AAUP-WSU President. However, the requesting party is not entitled to any information that is confidential under any applicable law. In addition, the requesting party is entitled to view information in its existing form only.

16.9 No changes can be made to a grievance form once it is filed under Section 16.4 except as follows: After completing Step Two and before submitting a grievance to arbitration, the Grievant may change or add to the specific provision(s) of the Agreement allegedly violated. In such cases, the amended grievance will be resubmitted to the Provost, who no later than ten (10) days after receiving the amended grievance form shall reconfirm his or her original Step Two written response, offer an amended written response, or call another Step Two meeting in accordance with Section 16.5.
Article 17
Retrenchment

17.1 Retrenchment is defined as the termination of a continuing Bargaining Unit Faculty Member during any appointment as a result of any of the following three circumstances: (1) financial exigency pursuant to 17.1.1; (2) significant reduction in enrollment of a College, Department, or Program (here and elsewhere, meaning a program offered for credit) continuing over four or more academic semesters (not counting summer) and which is expected to persist; or (3) discontinuation or reduction in size of a College, Department or Program.

Financial exigency means that severe financial problems exist which threaten the University’s ability to maintain its academic operations at an acceptable level of quality.

17.2 Should the University President anticipate the need for retrenchment of Bargaining Unity Faculty Members, the data and information upon which this decision is based shall be provided to the AAUP-WSU.

17.3 The AAUP-WSU shall be provided access and the opportunity to inspect and/or copy any information relevant to the anticipated retrenchment within ten (10) calendar days after the delivery of a written request to the Provost. However, the AAUP-WSU is not entitled to any information that is confidential under any applicable law. In addition, the AAUP-WSU is entitled to view information in its existing form only.

17.4 Within sixty (60)-thirty (30) business days after receipt of the data and information in Section 17.3 a joint Committee on Retrenchment, with three members appointed by the University and three members appointed by the AAUP-WSU, shall submit its advisory recommendations to the University President. Such recommendations may include ways to relieve the exigency, if applicable, by raising additional funds, by reallocating funds, or by cutting or eliminating specified activities.

17.4.1 In making its recommendations, the Committee on Retrenchment shall give consideration to long-term enrollment projections, the mission of the University as a whole, the continued accreditation of academic units, the effect on joint programs with other institutions, and the impact on the students registered in the programs.

17.4.2 In the case of an anticipated reduction in size or discontinuation of a College, Department, or Program, the Committee on Retrenchment’s recommendations shall include consideration of:

- its historical role and contributions in the University’s educational, scholarly and service mission, and those long-range circumstances which may have changed to alter that role and those contributions;
- the dependence of other programs in the University on the College, Department, or Program;
- duplication elsewhere in the University of courses, research or services offered through the Department, College or Program, and possible organizational arrangements which might serve as alternatives to discontinuation;
• arrangements which can be made to allow students enrolled to satisfy degree or certificate requirements;
• stature of its faculty and alumni, and the possible consequences to the academic stature of the University through discontinuation;
• the periods of service and tenure status of its Bargaining Unit Faculty Members and an estimate of their possible usefulness elsewhere within the University; and
• possible arrangements for planned phasing out of the College, Department, or Program as an alternative to abrupt discontinuation.

17.5 The President shall forward the recommendations of the Committee on Retrenchment along with his or her recommendations to the Board of Trustees.

17.6 Procedures for Retrenchment.

17.6.1 The University shall, in good faith, consider whether the need for retrenchment can be alleviated through normal attrition or other alternatives to retrenchment. In making its decisions about retrenchment, the University shall, in good faith, give consideration to the factors listed in Sections 17.4.1 and 17.4.2.

17.6.2 Except as provided for in Sections 17.6.6 and consistent with the operating needs of the level of organization the University has deemed appropriate for retrenchment, the University shall retrench Bargaining Unit Faculty Members in the order outlined in Section 17.6.4, by rank in inverse order of seniority within the unit(s) identified for retrenchment.

17.6.3 Before retrenching a Member(s), the University will remove teaching responsibilities from all adjunct faculty and all staff who teach in that Member’s Department, unless it can be shown that the adjunct or staff member is academically essential to the continuation of the academic mission of that Department or that the adjunct or staff member’s continuing teaching does not diminish teaching opportunities for Members.

17.6.4 Members (other than faculty in the School of Professional Psychology) will be retrenched in the following order:

- Visiting Professors
- Instructors/Clinical Instructors
- Lecturers/Clinical Assistant Professors
- Assistant Professors
- Senior Lecturers
- Associate Professors
- Professors

Members in the School of Professional Psychology will be retrenched in the following order:
- Clinical Assistant Professor
- Clinical Associate Professor
- Clinical Professor
17.6.5 Within each academic rank, seniority shall be calculated from the earliest date of continuous University employment.

17.6.5.1 Leaves with pay shall count as years of service for seniority.

17.6.5.2 While unpaid leaves shall not count as years of service for seniority, neither do they constitute a break in continuous University employment.

17.6.5.3 Periods of continuous employment wherein an individual is outside the Bargaining Unit, such as service as a chair, dean, provost or President, shall count as years of service for seniority.

17.6.6 To meet operating needs of the unit(s) being reduced, the University will retain specific Bargaining Unit Faculty Members who are best qualified to meet programmatic, curricular, or other academic needs; however, to deviate from the order of retrenchment specified in Sections 17.6.3-17.6.6.3, the University must first obtain and consider in good faith independent recommendations regarding that deviation (specifically, whether the deviation is necessary in order to meet programmatic, curricular, or other academic needs) from the impacted Members’ Department Chair(s) and from a committee appointed by AAUP-WSU. The independent recommendations shall be provided within 15 working days after a request from the University. If the University has complied with the procedures under this Article, the AAUP-WSU cannot grieve the substantive decisions. Any grievance for procedural matters will be subject to Article 16.

17.6.7 The termination of a Bargaining Unit Faculty Member may not be necessary if his or her salary is paid by restricted funds.

17.6.8 Bargaining Unit Faculty Members whose positions are terminated shall be offered available faculty positions for which they are fully qualified or for which they can become fully qualified within the period of their notification of termination as specified in Section 17.6.9. Where feasible, the University will consider relocating Bargaining Unit Faculty Members in a non-faculty position, as an alternative to termination.

17.6.9 A Bargaining Unit Faculty Member whose continuing appointment is terminated pursuant to the provisions of this Article 17 shall receive salary and benefits (or notice) in accordance with the following schedule:

17.10 The University shall not fill a position in a discipline in which a Bargaining Unit Faculty Member, who has been retrenched, is professionally qualified for a period of two (2) years from the date of termination of service, unless the position is first offered to that Member and he or she is given at least thirty (30) days to decide whether to accept or decline the position. The Bargaining Unit Faculty Member shall be able to complete the term of his or her current employment (up to one semester year) before beginning the recalled position at Wright State University. A tenured Member of the Bargaining Unit thus recalled shall return with tenure. Any other Member thus recalled shall return with the number of years of prior service at Wright State University counting as part of his or her probationary period.
Article 18

Institutional Environment Provisions

18.1 The University recognizes the importance of an adequate working environment and supporting services to promote effective teaching, learning and research. Therefore, within the limits of available space and resources, the University shall make a good faith reasonable effort to provide each Member of the Bargaining Unit the following:

18.1.1 suitable office space and furniture, phone, and network-compatible computer with access to either a network or personal printer;

18.1.2 access to copying services for their reasonable academic copying needs;

18.1.3 office and classroom supplies; and

18.1.4 library resources, computing systems with technical support, classrooms, and laboratories that are responsive to Member Bargaining Unit Faculty and student needs, in compliance with Public Employment, Risk Reduction Program (PERRP) O.S.H.A. standards, and consistent with standards of quality recognized at the national level.

18.1.5 The University will make a good faith effort to respond in a timely fashion to reasonable requests from Members for measures to secure hazardous materials.

18.2 The University shall provide timely notification, through the relevant Faculty IT committee, of changes in software or other web-based platforms (like learning management systems) that directly impact faculty responsibilities to service, teaching, and research, adequate training of faculty in such software or platforms with synchronous and asynchronous trainings to meet faculty needs, and consultation with relevant faculty IT committee on such decisions.

18.3 Before moving a Bargaining Unit Faculty Member from an assigned research laboratory space, the University will communicate to the Member in writing the reason(s) for the move.

18.3.1 Whenever laboratory space is reallocated or assigned to a new faculty member, it will be inspected before the new occupant moves in, by the Department of Environmental Health and Safety.

18.4 Internet and Email Access. The University will provide all Members with on-campus internet access and a University-issued email account at no cost to the individual Member. Members will exclusively use University-issued email accounts for transacting official University business. Members who use cloud-based file storage for official University records must use only those systems or services that have been procured by the University’s IT department for that purpose, unless otherwise authorized in writing by the IT department. The University will maintain internet connections in a manner consistent with other Ohio universities.
18.5 Notice of Teaching Assignments. The parties agree that adequate notice of teaching assignments (here and below, meaning which courses they will teach, but not necessarily the scheduling of those courses at specific times) supports high quality instruction. Therefore, the University will make a good faith effort to inform Bargaining Unit Members of their teaching assignments at least two months before the beginning of any semester. Except under extraordinary circumstances, the University will inform Bargaining Unit Members of their teaching assignments at least four weeks before the beginning of any fall or spring semester (two weeks before the beginning of a summer term). Extraordinary circumstances include, but are not limited to, the death or illness or resignation of a faculty member which necessitates changes to teaching assignments in a department. When changes to teaching assignments are made in response to extraordinary circumstances after the aforementioned deadlines, the University will, in writing, promptly inform Members of any change(s) to their teaching assignments and the reason for the change(s).

18.5.1 The University will make a good faith effort to inform Bargaining Unit Members of the specific times when their assigned classes are scheduled at least four weeks before the beginning of any fall or spring semester (two weeks before the beginning of a summer term).
Article 19
Workload

19.1 Faculty workload requirements are set forth in a faculty workload policy that the University and the AAUP-WSU agree will be included in the Faculty Handbook–University Policy 2020. The reference in this Agreement to the faculty workload policy and its inclusion in University Policy 2020 does not convert the faculty workload policy into a mandatory bargaining subject.

If the AAUP-WSU believes that the assigned workload of one or more Members is inconsistent with specific provisions of that Policy or the guiding documents that support it, it shall have the sole right to submit the matter to an external arbitrator within thirty (30) days of receiving the Provost’s response to an appeal from an individual Member or from the AAUP-WSU. The definition of days refers to the time limits established in Section 1.7. Procedures for such arbitration shall be in accordance with those specified in Sections 16.6-16.9.
Article 21
Online Courses

21.1 Online Courses are courses that employ technologies (audio, video, or computer, both now known or hereafter developed) that are utilized to teach courses in a format other than in a typical ‘in-person’ or ‘face-to-face’ format. These courses can be taught in a synchronous and/or asynchronous modality.

Online courses provide an alternative form of educational instruction, but they are afforded the same status, compensation (when teaching them) and workload considerations, for all purposes, as traditional classroom teaching except that the compensation for developing them will be as provided for in 21.4.

21.2 Online Course Assignments and Requests.

21.2.1 Members may be required to teach an Online Course or to add a second delivery mode to any course pursuant to the considerations listed in 21.2.3.

21.2.2 At the sole discretion of the University, Members may be required to teach online courses when the University schedules online classes that they are qualified to teach or other classes in their college that they have taught online within the previous five years, unless

- They have summer grant support pursuant to Section 7.8.4 or an administrative assignment pursuant to Section 7.8.5, or
- they are denied opportunities for online teaching as a disciplinary measure, or
- they have received an evaluation of less than “expected merit” in teaching or service in the most recent annual evaluation pursuant to Article 11, or
- [TET] they have been given notice of termination or denied tenure in their final probationary year due, at least in part, to ineffective teaching, or
- [TET] they have completed a “terminal year” pursuant to Section 13.6.1, or
- [NTE] they have been given notice of termination due, at least in part, to ineffective teaching, or
- they have resigned or retired with an effective date prior to or during the semester
- they have failed to fulfill any applicable requirements in Article 7 or received a rating of less than “expected merit” for teaching in their most recent Annual Evaluation.

21.2.3. Requests by Members to develop and teach an Online Course are subject to the sole discretion of the Dean and/or Provost. Considerations of whether to have an Online Course developed/taught may include such factors as (a.) whether the course content is appropriate for an Online Course format, (b.) whether the individual Member’s background, experience and skills are reasonably suited to teaching via this methodology, (c.) whether the Online Course modality is conducive to effective student learning outcomes, (d.) other factor that may impact the student experience and/or ability to be successful in the class, and (e.) availability of sufficient resources to support the development of the Online Course.
21.2.4 If the University would like a course developed for online delivery in a given semester the University will solicit interest from Members qualified to teach the course at the university.

21.2.6 Members who are assigned to teach or revise an Online Course shall not buy or use courses or course materials that are created, in full or in substantial part, by any third-party vendor unless: (a.) the Member requests the Dean’s approval, and the Dean grants such approval (in the Dean’s discretion), (b.) the Member is solely responsible for any and all costs associated with acquiring the course or course materials in question, unless otherwise approved in writing by the Dean, and (c.) the Member obtains all legally required licenses and approvals for use of the course or course materials, and ensures that any materials not developed or created by the Member are clearly marked as belonging to a third-party.

21.3 Support for Online Teaching

21.3.1 The University will provide reasonable technological and pedagogical support for Members who develop and/or teach Online Courses. Such support shall include training, consultation on instructional design, and technical assistance. During both development and delivery of Online Courses, the University shall ensure that appropriate technology, software, equipment, and personnel are identified and in place and shall provide appropriate training for faculty members, consistent with both the need of the faculty member and the availability of University resources and service for that purpose.

21.3.2 The University shall provide technical assistance and training only for the course (learning) management system it has approved and adopted. To help maximize student success and ensure the University’s compliance with regulations, Members shall use the approved course (learning) management system when teaching Online Courses.

Any changes to the technology or course (learning) management system will be made by the University with consideration of feedback from both the Faculty Senate and students. The University retains sole discretion as to which learning management system is to be used and that decision will be communicated to the AAUP-WSU.

21.4 Course Development Compensation

21.4.1 When a member is tasked with developing an Online Course, that Member and the University will enter into a signed agreement specifying, at a minimum, (1) the course to be developed, (2) a description of the materials that Member is to develop, (3) the Member’s roles and responsibilities as part of a course development team, and (4) and estimated course development schedule, and (5) compensation for course development in the amount of $2,000. The AAUP-WSU will be provided copies of these agreements upon request.

21.4.2 Unless otherwise specified in a signed agreement, Members who develop an Online Course will make minor revisions as necessary to keep the material current for a period of up to five years. Updates and changes to Online Courses will be afforded the appropriate level of technical and institutional design support.
21.4.3 At the discretion of the University for a period of up to five years, the Member who develops an Online Course may be assigned to teach the class (if the class is being offered as an Online Course) as part of their workload, as a summer class(es) or, with the Member’s agreement, as an overload. At any time, the Member and the University may agree to lengthen or shorten the five-week period.

21.4.4 The scheduling of classes that are developed under the terms of this agreement will be at the discretion of the University in accordance with student and curriculum needs.

21.4.5 The course product, or portions thereof, will only be used at Wright State University and by that Member, except as follows:

- If the Member wishes to be relieved of teaching the course, and the University agrees, then another faculty member may be assigned to teach the course using the former Member’s course product or any portion thereof.
- If the Member resigns or retires from the University or is on sick leave, Professional Development or other leave, or is suspended or terminated in accordance with Article 14 and/or 15, the University may assign another faculty member to teach the course using the Member’s course product or any portion thereof for any term that begins within two years of the time when the University receives written notice of the Member’s absence.
- If the University determines that the Member’s qualifications, skills, and expertise are more effectively deployed to teach other courses during the offered time frame. Such distinctive substitution must be approved by the Dean and Provost.

21.5 A Member teaching an Online Course may hold some of the normally expected office hours in a virtual formal. If all classes taught during a given semester are Online Courses, the Member may request to hold all of the normally expected office hours in a virtual format. Approval of this request is at the sole discretion of the University.

21.6 Determination of class size for an Online Course will be consistent with the practices, procedures, and criteria of the University that supports successful outcomes for student learning.

21.7 Consistent with the provisions of 7.x, a Member may block a disruptive student’s access to an online course that they are teaching.

21.8 Program, Special-Demand, and Multi-section distance-learning classes previously developed by Members under the 2019-2020 and 2020-2023 Collective Bargaining Agreements remain subject to the terms of those Agreements. However, the decision as to whether or not a course developed under these agreements will continue to be offered or revised is solely at the discretion of the University.
Article 22
Outside Employment

22.1 “Outside Employment” refers to professional activities of Bargaining Unit Faculty Members that fall outside of the normally defined workload of teaching, research, and service and that may involve external compensation, and which takes place during a semester in which the Member is teaching for the University. It does not apply to professional activities that reflect normal and expected public service for which compensation is limited to reimbursement of costs or nominal honoraria such as invited lectures, peer review panels, or activities explicitly included in approved practice plans. “Outside Employment” does apply to all other professional work and to teaching for institutions other than Wright State, including distance learning.

22.2 A Bargaining Unit Faculty Member’s outside employment must not interfere with his or her assigned duties, must contribute to the Member’s professional development, and must not occupy, on average, more than one day per week affect the Member’s reasonable availability to students or other Wright State University obligations. A member may not teach for institutions other than Wright State without prior approval from the Provost.

22.3 Bargaining Unit Faculty Annually, at least ten (10) business days before the start of Fall semester, Members must submit a written request to their Dean an Outside Employment Disclosure form, provided by the University, acknowledging the responsibility to report outside employment and then receive written approval from either requesting permission to hold outside employment in that year or declaring that they are not engaged in Outside Employment.

22.3.1 Should a Member desire to engage in outside employment at any time throughout the year after completing the annual disclosure form, they must update their form, submit it to their Dean and receive written approval prior to beginning outside employment. When the nature of a Member’s approved outside employment changes, or when the nature of the Member’s job for the University changes that may create a conflict with previously approved outside employment, the Member must promptly notify their Dean and receive written approval to continue.

22.3.2 Failure to properly disclose outside employment or to receive written approval may result in actions being taken in accordance with Articles 14 and/or 15 of this agreement.

22.4 When engaging in outside employment, Bargaining Unit Faculty Members may not make more than incidental use of University facilities and other resources, including the work time of other employees, unless the University prior approval is appropriately compensated given by the University and appropriate compensation is provided.

22.5 Bargaining Unit Faculty Members should make every effort to avoid any conflict or appearance of conflict between outside employment activities and University responsibilities, and to avoid accepting outside assignments that compete directly with academic functions of Wright State University.

22.6 Bargaining Unit Faculty 22.5.1 A Member’s outside employment shall not involve the transaction of business with the University (e.g. buying or selling goods or services to/from the University) without the prior written approval of the Provost. Additionally, a Member’s outside employment shall not involve the transaction of business with the Member’s Chair without prior written approval of the University.

22.5.1 The Parties acknowledge that all University employees are subject to certain provisions of the Ohio ethics laws regarding public employee outside activities. Before beginning any outside employment, each Member will complete the free, one-hour online ethics training (Ohio Ethics Law E-Course) offered by the Ohio Ethics Commission. The Member will certify to the University in writing that the training has been completed. The University may require annual recertification.

22.5.2 A Member who is uncertain whether their activities are consistent with their obligations under the Ohio ethics laws may consult with the Office of General Counsel and/or the Ohio Ethics Commission. Members are encouraged to investigate any possible conflicts before beginning the Outside Activity.

22.6 As they are acting outside the scope of their employment with the University, Members are personally responsible for any damages or claims for damages which may arise in connection with their outside employment.

Article 24
Minimum Salaries

24.1 2017-2018: Newly Promoted Members Bargaining Unit Faculty at the ranks of Associate Professor and Professor

24.1.1 For each continuing Bargaining Unit Faculty Member on an academic year appointment who will hold the rank of Associate Professor or Professor for the first time during the academic year 2017-2018, the University will compute a provisional base salary “x” for the academic year 2017-2018 by applying the applicable raises specified in Article 23 to the Member’s base salary for the previous academic year 2016-2017. Then, the University will compute the Member’s final base salary “y” for the appropriate academic year 2017-2018 in accordance with the formula

\[ y = \begin{cases}
  m + \frac{M - m}{M - L} (x - L) & \text{if } x \text{ is less than } M \\
  x & \text{if } x \text{ is greater than or equal to } M \end{cases} \]

where

- \( L \) equals the lowest provisional base salary among all continuing Bargaining Unit Faculty Members who will hold the rank of Associate Professor or Professor, respectively, for the first time during the academic year 2017-2018 under calculation (with fiscal year provisional base salaries multiplied by 9/11 for purposes of determining \( L \)),

- \( m \) equals $78,846, and
- \( M \) equals $83,528.

Thus, if the Member’s provisional base salary is less than \( M \) ($83,528), then the final base salary will be higher than the provisional base salary and will be between \( m \) ($78,846) and \( M \) ($83,528); and otherwise, the final base salary will be the same as the provisional base salary.

24.1.2 For each continuing Bargaining Unit Faculty Member on an academic year appointment who will hold the rank of Professor for the first time during the academic year 2017-2018, the University will determine a provisional base salary and a final base salary, using the procedure and formula in Section 24.1.1 above but with \( L \) equal to the lowest provisional base salary among all continuing Bargaining Unit Faculty Members who will hold the rank of Professor for the first time during the academic year 2017-2018 (with fiscal year provisional base salaries... multiplied by 9/11 for purposes of determining \(L\), and with \(m\) and \(M\) as shown in row 2 of Table A.

24.1.2 For each continuing Bargaining Unit Faculty Member on a fiscal year appointment who will hold the rank of Associate Professor or Professor for the first time during a given fiscal year 2017-2018, the University will

1. determine a provisional base salary \(x_f\) using the procedure in Section 24.1.1 above (i.e., by applying the applicable raises specified in Sections 23.1 through 23.4.12 of Article 23 to the Member’s base salary for the previous year [2016-2017]),
2. compute \(x\) equal to 9 \(x_f/11\),
3. compute \(y\) according to the formula in 24.1.1 (with the same values of \(L\), \(m\), and \(M\) as in Section 24.1.1), and
4. compute the final base salary \(y_f\) equal to 11 \(y/9\).

24.1.4 The University will proceed in a like manner for each Bargaining Unit Faculty Member on a fiscal year appointment who will hold the rank of Professor for the first time during the fiscal year 2017-2018, but with the values of \(L\), \(m\), and \(M\) as in Section 24.1.2.

24.2 2018-2019: Newly Promoted Bargaining Unit Faculty at the ranks of Associate Professor and Professor

The University will proceed as described in Sections 24.1 through 24.1.4, using values of \(m\) and \(M\) specified in rows 3 and 4 of Table A (and values of \(L\) based on salaries for 2017-2018).

24.3 2019-2020 through 2022-2023: Newly Promoted Bargaining Unit Faculty at the ranks of Associate Professor and Professor

The University will proceed as described in Sections 24.1 through 24.1.4, using the respective values of \(m\) and \(M\) specified in rows 5 through 12 of Table A (and values of \(L\) as calculated in 24.1.1 above).

24.4 3 Other Bargaining Unit Faculty Members at the Ranks of Associate Professor and Professor

For a given year 2017-2018 [and 2018-2019, and 2019-2020 through 2022-2023], the minimum salary for each Bargaining Unit Faculty Member at the rank of Associate Professor or Professor to whom the provisions of Sections 24.1 through 24.1.24 [respectively Section 24.2, and Section 24.3, and proceeding as applicable] do not apply will be as specified in the applicable rows 1 and 2 [respectively rows 3 and 4, and rows 5 and 6, and proceeding as applicable] of Table B below.

Any such Bargaining Unit Faculty Member whose annual base salary (as determined by a letter of appointment, the provisions of Article 23, any other provisions of this Agreement, or otherwise) would otherwise be below the level specified in Table B below will receive an increase to the annual base salary so that the final base salary equals the appropriate amount in Table B.

24.5.1 Bargaining Unit Faculty Members at the rank of Assistant Professor

The minimum salary for each Bargaining Unit Faculty Member at the rank of Assistant Professor will be as specified in Table APC below. Thus, any such Member whose annual base salary (as determined by a letter of appointment, the provisions of Article 23, any other provisions of this Agreement, or otherwise) would otherwise be below the level specified in Table APC below will receive an increase to the annual base salary so that the final base salary equals the appropriate amount in Table APC.

24.6 In the application of the formula in Section 24.1.1, if in any case the calculated value of L should be greater than m, the parties will meet to determine the final base salary of each Member with a provisional base salary less than M; for each such Member, the final base salary will be greater than the provisional base salary but not more than M.

24.8 The salaries listed in the Tables in Sections 24.1.1 through 24.7 will increase by the same rates as provided for in 23.1 and 23.2.

Commented [2]: Based on a full comparison to minimum salaries within the other IUC schools with collective bargaining agreements, the only rank that was not at the very top end was Instructor. This minimum has been adjusted to be more in line with our peer institution minimums. The Visiting Faculty and Fiscal Appointments of Instructor and Visiting Faculty have been adjusted accordingly.

Commented [3]: This is to account for what will happen in future years.
Article 26
Medical, Dental and Vision Insurance

26.1 For the duration of these Agreements, the University will provide Bargaining Unit Faculty Members with medical insurance, a prescription drug benefit, dental insurance, and vision insurance under the plans generally provided to the employees of the University, and on the same terms and conditions on which those benefits are generally provided to employees of the University.

The University, in its discretion, may modify such benefits, the University and Bargaining Unit Faculty Members’ share of the cost of such benefits, the terms and conditions on which such benefits are provided, and/or the means by which such benefits are provided, so long as any such modifications are also applicable generally to employees of the University.

If the University decides to change or modify the benefit plan(s) consistent with Section 26.1 above, the University will inform the Union sixty (60) days prior to the effective date of the new benefits and provide the Union an opportunity to meet and confer regarding such changes or modifications before the effective date.

26.2 A summary of the program of benefits may be found on Human Resources’ website.

26.3 The University and Union recognize the benefit of an exchange of ideas and information regarding medical insurance, and as such, the parties agree that a Bargaining Unit Faculty Member, designated by AAUP-WSU, will participate in the University’s medical insurance advisory group.

26.4 The terms of this Article 26 are subject to negotiation for the provision of medical, dental and vision insurance in effect at the expiration of the Second Successor Agreement, and these terms are not a waiver or lessening of the parties’ rights to negotiate medical, dental and vision insurance at the expiration of the Second Successor Agreement.

26.5 The AAUP-WSU will join the University’s healthcare plan in effect for other employees of the University beginning on April 1, 2019 and the plan will remain the same through December 31, 2020.

26.6 During these First and Second Successor Agreements, the University will continue to provide at a minimum two medical plan offerings in order to preserve employee choice / options.

26.7 Before changing or modifying benefit plans, the University’s obligation to meet and confer with the AAUP-WSU already set forth in Section 26.1 further includes considering input from the AAUP-WSU representative on the University’s medical insurance advisory group.

26.8 For Members with academic year appointments, placement in premium tier levels will be based upon the member’s nine-month salary (and not the annualized salary.)

26.9 The University will provide the AAUP-WSU with an electronic copy of the monthly report(s) from the University’s benefits broker or consulting firm.
26.10 Effective January 1, 2020, the University through its medical insurance advisory group (upon which AAUP-WSU has a representative) will add one or more higher-end tier(s) to the current progressive premium structure.

26.11 During the Second Successor Agreement for benefit plan(s) taking effect January 1, 2021 through December 31, 2023 Over the term of this agreement, if the University decides to change or modify the benefit plan(s) consistent with Section 26.1, the University will not increase the employee Member’s premiums by more than 35% from their December 31, 2020 levels over the term of the Second Successor Agreement and the University will not increase the employee or out-of-pocket maximums by more than 35% from their December 31, 2020 levels over the term of the Second Successor Agreement.
Article 31
Other Benefits

31.1 Tuition and Fee Remission. This benefit consists of a waiver of the instructional fee, general fee, and out-of-state tuition for Bargaining Unit Faculty Members taking courses at the University, and a waiver of 80% of the instructional fee, general fee, and out-of-state tuition for their spouses and eligible dependents taking courses at the University. This benefit does not apply to high school students participating in the Dual Enrollment Program.

31.1.1 Eligibility for Tuition and Fee Remission Benefits. Eligibility is determined by the status of the Bargaining Unit Faculty Member on the first day of the applicable term. The following individuals are eligible for these benefits:

- Bargaining Unit Faculty Members.
- Spouse, or dependents of an eligible Bargaining Unit Faculty Member. A dependent is a son, stepson, daughter, or stepdaughter of the Member as defined in the Internal Revenue Code, who is eligible to be claimed as a dependent on the Member’s federal income tax return up to the maximum age limits as provided for a qualified child.
- Retirees, including those on disability retirement, who have ten years of Wright State University service, and who were eligible at the time of their retirement, and their spouses, and dependents.
- Spouses, domestic partners and dependents of Bargaining Unit Faculty Members who were eligible at the time of their deaths or spouses, and dependents of eligible Members on disability leave. Such eligibility for dependents expires at the time their dependent status would have expired.
- Members on disability leave pursuant to Section 30.4.

31.1.2 Limitations on Tuition and Fee Remission Benefits.

31.1.2.1 A Bargaining Unit Faculty Member is limited to maximum benefits equal to the instructional fee, general fee and out-of-state tuition for a maximum of eight (8) credit hours per semester. For the purpose of Member fee remission, there are three semesters per year: fall, spring, and summer. Spouses, and dependents of the eligible Bargaining Unit Faculty Member, retirees, and Members on disability leave are not subject to these limitations.

31.1.2.2 Benefits for credit-hour courses for a Bargaining Unit Faculty Member apply only to courses included in regular undergraduate and graduate level programs, and do not apply to courses in Medicine and Professional Psychology. Benefits for credit-hour courses for an individual other than a Bargaining Unit Faculty Member apply only to courses included in regular undergraduate and master’s level programs.
31.1.2.3 Except for certain restricted offerings, an eligible Bargaining Unit Faculty Member may have 100% of the fee for noncredit courses or workshops remitted if the enrollment is approved by the Member’s Chair as being beneficial for the training of the Member.

31.1.2.4 The fee remission benefit for eligible Bargaining Unit Faculty Members covers audited courses as well as courses for academic credit.

31.1.2.5 A fee remission for noncredit courses or workshops is not available for spouses and dependents of the Bargaining Unit Faculty Member or for retirees.

31.2 Employee Assistance Program. The University will provide members of the household of eligible Bargaining Unit Faculty Members, and dependents of an eligible Member who are eligible for group health insurance coverage, an Employee Assistance Program that provides short-term problem-focused counseling to deal with a variety of personal and work-related problems. This program shall be provided at no cost to the Bargaining Unit Faculty Member.

31.3 Flexible Spending Accounts. The University will offer flexible spending accounts for health and dependent care to eligible Bargaining Unit Faculty Members.

31.3.1 The health care account is used for pre-tax reimbursement of medical, dental and vision care costs that are not reimbursed by an insurance plan. The minimum contribution is $10/month; the maximum contribution is the maximum allowed by law. Members who have health account funds that are not spent in one calendar year may carry over amounts as permitted by the IRS.

31.3.2 The dependent care account is used for pre-tax reimbursement of dependent care expenses including the cost of care in a licensed day care center, preschool tuition, and care provided in or outside the employee’s home. The minimum contribution is $10/month; the maximum is the maximum allowable by law.

31.4 Parking. The University will offer parking for Bargaining Unit Faculty Members (B permits) at no more than $200 for calendar year 2018, $250 for calendar year 2019, and $300 for calendar year 2020. Members shall pay for parking at the same rates as other University employees.

31.5 Parental Accommodations

31.5.1 Teaching Relief. So that they will have time to care for a newborn or newly-adopted child under the age of six, eligible Members may choose to take either one full semester with no teaching responsibilities or two semesters with 50% of that Member’s customary teaching load without loss of pay. If the Member’s teaching load is an uneven number of courses per academic year, the total reduction in teaching responsibilities will equal the smaller number of classes. Thus, a Member with a customary teaching load of five courses per year will have a total reduction in teaching responsibilities of two courses. Teaching relief semesters must be started within one year of the birth or adoption.
31.5.1.1 To be eligible for teaching relief, the Member must, during the teaching relief semester(s), be the primary caretaker of his or her newborn or newly adopted child under six for at least 25 hours per week, from Monday through Friday, between the hours of 8 a.m. and 10 p.m.

31.5.1.2 Parental Teaching Relief will be granted if requested by a Member who meets the requirements for eligibility. Requests must be submitted to the Provost, with a copy sent to AAUP-WSU, as much in advance as is reasonably possible. Requests must include a signed statement that the individual will satisfy the requirement for eligibility, as defined in Section 31.5.1.1 and also an anticipated schedule of times when the Member will be the primary caretaker of the child.

31.5.2 Annual Evaluation. All Members who have a newly born or adopted child under the age of six may, upon request, receive the average evaluation score in their department for annual evaluation in the year in which the child was born or adopted, or in one of the following two years. Thus, a Member with a child born or adopted in 2019 has the option of receiving an average evaluation score for 2019, 2020, or 2021. The request must be made no later than December 31 of the year for which the average evaluation score is requested.

31.5.3 When preparing teaching schedules and other assignments, department chairs and deans are encouraged to consider the childcare responsibilities of Members with children under the age of six. Members’ schedule requests will be considered but cannot be guaranteed, and reasonable adjustments to accommodate their parenting responsibilities shall not be construed as preferential treatment of those Members.

31.5.4 Members may apply to their dean for support to maintain their laboratory operations or other ongoing professional commitments during the year following the birth or adoption of a child under six.

31.5.5 Additional provisions in this Agreement to assist parents of newborn or newly adopted children include—

- sick leave and FMLA (Article 28 and Sections 30.1-30.2.5),
- unpaid child care leave (Sections 30.3-30.3.3),
- partial unpaid leave (Section 30.8), and
- probationary period extensions (Section T13.5.4 and subsections).

31.6 Adoption Assistance.

31.6.1 The university will reimburse Bargaining Unit Faculty Members up to $4,000 per child for eligible adoption related expenses upon placement of a minor child in the Member’s home. If two adopting parents of the same adopted child are both eligible for adoption assistance, the total maximum benefit amount for that adoption is $4,000.

31.6.2 Eligible adoptions:
- Adopted children must be under the age of 18.
- The children may be biologically related to either parent.
- Adoptions made through public, private, domestic, international, and independent means are eligible.

31.6.3 Eligible Expenses:

- Agency and placement fees
- Legal fees and court costs
- Required medical expenses for the child prior to adoption (including immunizations)
- Immigration fees
- Translation services
- Transportation and lodging expenses

The following expenses are not eligible:

- Medical examination fees for the adopting parents
- Cost of personal items such as clothing and food for either the parents or the child
- Expenses incurred prior to eligibility for the program.

31.6.4 To receive adoption assistance a Bargaining Unit Member must fill out an application for adoption assistance and turn it into Human Resources. (Adoption benefits may carry tax implications so Bargaining Unit Members are encouraged to consult their tax advisor.)

31.7 Should the University provide programming, discounts or incentives related to Wellness and Fitness to its represented or non-represented employees, any such program, discount or incentive shall accrue to Members that are assigned to that campus on the same basis.
Article 32
Dues Check-Off and Fair-Share

32.1 The regular AAUP-WSU dues shall be established under the terms of the AAUP-WSU Constitution and Bylaws and certified to the University by the AAUP-WSU. Upon written authorization of payroll deductions, the University shall deduct AAUP-WSU dues from the paychecks of all Bargaining Unit Faculty who are Regular Chapter Members of the AAUP-WSU in equal increments, and transmit the amount deducted to the AAUP-WSU.

32.1.1 The AAUP-WSU will provide to the University the following information at least sixty (60) calendar days before the date of the payroll when the change takes effect:

- Changes to the rates (percentages) to be deducted for member dues or for fair share fees.

32.1.2 The AAUP-WSU will provide to the University the following information at least thirty (30) calendar days before the date of the payroll when the change takes effect:

- Names of new objectors and the amount to be deducted from the paycheck of each.
- Names of Bargaining Unit Faculty who will change from one of the following three categories to another: member, fair share payer, objector.

32.2 The University will make every effort to forward checked-off dues and the fair share fees to the AAUP-WSU one week following the end of the month. Each month, a report will be sent to AAUP-WSU documenting the Members from whom dues were deducted and the amount of that deduction. The University shall levy no charge upon the AAUP-WSU for administering the payroll deduction.

32.3 The AAUP-WSU agrees that it will indemnify and hold the University harmless from any and all claims, damages, actions, or suits of any nature arising out of, related to, or in any way connected with the enforcement or application of this Article.

32.4 In recognition of the AAUP-WSU’s services to the Bargaining Unit, each Member of the Bargaining Unit who is not a member of the AAUP-WSU shall on the effective date of this Agreement or sixty (60) days after the effective date of appointment to a Bargaining Unit position have a “fair share fee” deducted from his or her pay and forwarded to the AAUP-WSU. The AAUP-WSU will certify to the University the amount of the fair share fee, which shall not exceed the amount of dues for regular members of AAUP-WSU.

32.5 Members of the Bargaining Unit who are Regular Chapter Members of AAUP-WSU shall have no dues or other fees deducted during the first sixty (60) days after the effective date of appointment to a Bargaining Unit position.

32.6 This Article is in all respects subject to O.R.C. Section 4117.09, including the rebate procedure and objector provisions thereunder.
Article 35
Separability; Entire Agreement

35.1 Should any portion of this Agreement be found by a duly constituted authority to be in conflict with any applicable law, then such conflicting portion of this Agreement shall be rendered null and void and the applicable law shall be controlling. In such an event, upon request of either party, the parties shall meet. If replacement language is necessary as a substitute for the invalidated provision(s), the parties shall negotiate such replacement language.

35.2 The invalidation of any portions of this Agreement in accordance with this Article shall not affect the legality and enforceability of the remainder of this Agreement.

35.3 This Agreement sets forth the entire agreement of the parties. All prior agreements, including MOUs, are superseded and nullified to the extent not expressly incorporated herein.

The parties also agree that the MoU dated November 22, 202 that references the SoPP titles and T&T Criteria will be included in the CBA as an Appendix until such time as it is superseded by the bylaws.
Article 37
Amendments

37.1 The terms of this Agreement may be altered, changed, added to, deleted from, or modified only through the voluntary mutual consent of the parties in a written and signed amendment to this Agreement.

37.2 Notwithstanding 37.1, this Agreement may be superseded by state and/or federal law. In the event a state or federal law is enacted during the term of this Agreement that affects one or more provision(s) of this Agreement, the parties agree to meet as soon as practicable, but no later than thirty (30) days, after the law is enacted. This meeting will be for the purpose of determining those areas of this Agreement that must be altered, changed, added to, deleted from or modified to bring this Agreement into compliance with the law. If applicable, the parties will work in good faith to negotiate new language in that provision to bring the Agreement into alignment with the law.
Article 38
Agreement Duration

38.1 These First and Second Successor Agreement(s) (dated ratification vote - June 30, 2026, are identified as the First Successor Agreement dated February 10, 2019 – June 30, 2020 and the Second Successor Agreement dated July 1, 2020 – June 30, 2023) shall be effective upon execution and expire on June 30, 2020 and June 30, 2026, respectively.

38.2 The parties agree to begin negotiations for a successor agreement no later than January 2026, 2023.

38.3 The parties agree that if it is necessary to go to fact finding for a successor agreement, the time for fact finding will be extended such that the fact finder’s report will not be submitted to the parties prior to September 7, 2026, 2023. This extension does not take effect until after appointment of the fact finder pursuant to Ohio Revised Code Section 4117.14.
X.1 Summer Teaching Assignments

X.1.1 Members on academic year appointments shall be given an opportunity to teach up to 6 semester hours at least one (1) course every Summer when the University schedules classes in their department that they are qualified to teach or other classes in their college that they have taught within the previous three years, unless –

- They have summer grant support pursuant to Section X.1.4 or an administrative assignment pursuant to Section X.1.5, or
- they are denied opportunities for summer teaching as a disciplinary measure, or
- they have received a rating of less than ‘expected merit’ for teaching or service in the most recent annual evaluation pursuant to Article 11, or
- [TET] they have been given notice of termination or denied tenure in their final probationary year due, at least in part, to ineffective teaching, or
- [TET] they have completed a "terminal year" pursuant to Section 13.6.1, or
- [NTE] they have been given notice of termination due, at least in part, to ineffective teaching, or
- they have resigned or retired with an effective date prior to or during the Summer Semester.

X.1.2 When a class is offered and the requests for teaching by eligible Members (i.e. qualified to teach the course or who have successfully taught the course within the past three years) exceed the opportunities available,

1. Teaching will be assigned first to Members with the most seniority, which shall be calculated from the earliest date of continuous University employment as a full-time faculty member.
2. A second course will only be assigned to a Member once every member requesting teaching has been assigned one course, and second courses will be assigned in the same manner as above. (Here and below, a “course” normally means one carrying at least three semester hours of credit.).
3. Members requesting teaching in a given summer who were assigned no courses will receive top priority for a first course in the subsequent summer (and among them, priority will be by seniority.).

X.1.3 Except as in Section X.1.6, when a Member with an academic year appointment has summer grant support, the provisions of Sections X.1 and X.2 shall apply with the following restrictions:

- Summer grant support plus summer teaching cannot exceed full time (the equivalent of 12 credit hours in a single summer), and
- combined pay for the grant support and teaching in a single summer cannot exceed 1/3rd of the Member’s base salary.
X.1.4 When a Member with an academic year appointment is offered and accepts an administrative or service assignment from the University in the summer, and the compensation is the same as, or greater than, pay for teaching a course pursuant to Section X.2, the university’s obligation to provide teaching opportunities pursuant to Section X.1 is correspondingly reduced.

X.1.5 When a Member is offered and accepts a summer teaching assignment that in combination with grant support and administrative assignments exceeds full time, the excess shall be considered an overload and will be paid at the minimum overload rate pursuant to Section 23.5.

X.1.6 When the University and the AAUP-WSU agree in writing that valid concerns require that a course be taught outside the academic year, and the Member teaching the course agrees to the arrangement in writing, the University may schedule the class in the summer or during the break between terms as an on-load assignment without additional compensation. Such courses might include extensive field trips, international travel, seasonal requirements (e.g. wetlands biology), or other components that make the alternative scheduling necessary. Either the University or the AAUP-WSU may revoke this agreement by notifying the other party in writing. Once a class is so scheduled, any revocation will be effective when that class has concluded.

X.2 Summer Semester Compensation. A Member with an academic year appointment who has completed two semesters of service and is assigned by the University to teach during the summer semester will be compensated at the rate of $1,800 per credit hour, 1/42nd of her or his base salary per scheduled credit hour of summer instruction up to a maximum of twelve credit hours.

X.2.1 Once registration for summer has begun, cancellation of a class scheduled to be taught by a Member requires approval by a provost. For purposes of determining whether to cancel summer classes, 1 graduate student shall be the equivalent of 2 undergraduate students.

X.2.2 The University will not cancel a summer class scheduled to be taught by a Member if it has an enrollment of 15 or more undergraduate students, or the equivalent graduate students pursuant to X.2.1. If it becomes necessary to cancel a class, the University will make a good faith effort to preserve the Member’s opportunity to teach summer classes as set forth in Section X.1 and subsections.

X.2.3 If a course would otherwise be canceled in accordance with the low enrollment provisions above but the University, in its sole discretion, agrees to offer the class, the University may assign the Member that class with the Member receiving compensation at the minimum overload rate stipulated in 23.5.

X.2.4 The University has the right to reschedule Members from under-enrolled classes to classes that have adequate enrollment, or, if no such class is available, to cancel the Member’s course without reassigning and without compensation.

X.2.5 The University and the AAUP-WSU recognize the possibility that unforeseen financial, curricular, and/or enrollment management circumstances may arise making it appropriate to depart from the foregoing summer salary provisions and agree to discuss any such possibilities that are introduced by either party. No changes to the provisions shall be made without agreement of both the University and the AAUP-WSU.

X.2.6 Should no eligible Members agree to teach a summer class, the University may, at its sole discretion discretion, decide how to have the class taught.

X.2.7 Direction of independent laboratory research in summer shall be treated as the equivalent of up to a 3-credit hour course, subject to the minimum enrollment requirement of 2-15 students registered for 1-3 credit hours (subject to X.3, where 1 graduate student is the equivalent of 2 undergraduate students) with compensation at the minimum overload salary per credit hour, per Article 23.5.

X.2.7.1 Direction of independent laboratory research shall be approved at least one month in advance of the Summer term by the Member’s Department Chair, who shall provide a course and section number under which students can be registered.

X.3 At least two weeks prior to the summer schedule being released, Department Chairs will distribute to all Members in their academic units a list schedule of summer teaching assignments.

X.3.1 If a Member who is scheduled to teach one or more summer courses notifies the Department Chair, with a copy to the Dean, in writing within one week of receiving this list that they want to teach a course section of equal or fewer credit hours that they are qualified to teach and that has been assigned to a non-Member, the University will either
   (a) reassign that Member to teach the requested class, or
   (b) reassign that Member to another class to which the Member agrees; or,
   (c) provide the Member a reason, in writing, as to why the request cannot be granted.
   compensate the Member according to the enrollment generated in the requested class or in the class actually taught, whichever is greater, pursuant to Section 23.6, unless the Member elects not to teach the class to which he or she is assigned.

X.3.2 The University has no obligation to honor requests for assignment changes that are submitted more than one week after the list is distributed, pursuant to X.3.1.

X.3.3 The University will make a good faith effort to ensure that summer teaching opportunities identified in Section X.1 are not diminished by assignment of classes to non-Bargaining Unit Faculty until all qualified Members have been assigned at least one course.

X.4 Summer Semester Management. During the term of this Agreement, the University and the AAUP-WSU agree to periodically meet to consider changes to summer teaching aimed at enhancing summer revenue and enrollment. The parties agree to discuss any such possibilities that are introduced by either party. No changes to the provisions shall be made without agreement of both the University and the AAUP-WSU.
